CHANDLER FAMILY REUNION COMMITTEE

Every family should have a record of its own. Each has its peculiar spirit running through its whole line and in more or less development perceptible in every generation. Why should we not derive benefit from studying the virtues of our forefathers? An affectionate regard for their memory is natural to the heart; it is an emotion totally distinct from pride, an ideal love, free from that consciousness of requited affection and reciprocal esteem or equally merited censure.

&quot;Let us gather up the traditions which still exist; let us show the world, that if we are not called to follow the example of our fathers, we are at least not insensible to the worth of their characters; not indifferent to the sacrifices and trials, by which they purchased our prosperity."

INTRODUCTION

FIFTY years ago—on September 14, 1887—there was held, on the banks of the Brandywine Creek, in Chester County, Pennsylvania, a notable celebration, when, from near and far, descendants of George and Jane Chandler flocked to Birmingham Park, near Chad's Ford, to commemorate the two hundredth anniversary of the immigration of their ancestors to Pennsylvania.

The proceedings were under the direction of the Association of the Descendants of George and Jane Chandler, of which the officers (as we learn from the program of the day) were: Dr. Swithin Chandler, President; Dr. Ellwood Harvey, Vice-President; Prof. Joseph Shortlidge, Recording Secretary; Dr. Joseph H. Chandler, Treasurer; Gilbert Cope, Genealogist; Prof. Swithin Chandler Shortlidge and Alfred Noblit Chandler, Corresponding Secretaries; while the additional members of the Committee of Arrangements were: Dr. William Allen Chandler, Isaac E. Chandler, Jesse Chandler, Lilburne Chandler, J. Hyndman Noblit, John Chandler, Josephus P. Chandler, Spencer Chandler, Jacob Chandler, J. Poulson Chandler, Samuel Gregg, Charles W. Chandler, Dr. Evan G. Shortlidge, J. Frank Chandler, George K. Woodward, George J. Chandler, Harry H. Chandler, Joseph P. Chandler.

It was a celebration worthy of a Bicentennial. And doubtless the recording secretary made a lengthy minute of the occasion. Yet, were this minute to come to view, it must fall far short of the praiseworthy work of the "Daily Local News," of West Chester, Pa., which, in its issue of September 14th, covered the event in not less than nine columns (nearly fifteen feet) of closely set, fine print, setting forth the proceedings in full. With this and the program before us, we cannot lack for material to recall the events of the day.

After the arrival of a special train of eight cars, bearing members from distant cities, the exercises began, at 10:30, when the Weccacoe Band played, most appropriately, the medley, "Ye Olden Times."

Following this selection, the President, Dr. Swithin Chandler, delivered the Address of Welcome. Referring briefly to the immigration of the family, Dr. Chandler pointed out that as they had come from an agricultural district in England, so many descendants seemed inclined to cultivate the soil, and hence, to become pioneers farther west. He emphasized the fact that many of the clan have been Friends, and praised the sect for its devotion to religion, its simple life, plainness in dress and speech, and abstention from harmful amusements. After a few further remarks, the President extended a warm welcome to all to the historic grounds, close to the Brandywine battlefield, "wishing one and all a pleasant and a happy time."

After the playing of the famous "William Tell" overture, came the Commemorative Address, by Dr. Ellwood Harvey, the Vice-President. Taking as his text the commandment, "Honor thy Father and thy Mother," Dr. Harvey stated the purpose of the meeting to be, to do honor to the ancestors who left a land of oppression, and braved a long sea voyage, that their descendants might live under better conditions. "The love of parents and home," said he, "ripens into patriotism which makes its possessor a safe and useful member of society." After stating that "the history of man is the history of migrations westward," the speaker dwelt at some length on the origin of races, and explained that the dominance of the English-speaking in North America, was due to their having been a mixed race, with a combination of qualities not possessed by any other single race. As he expressed it, "the greatest admixture and its greatest results," were found here.

Mr. S. H. Kendle then rendered a cornet solo, "Grand Russian Fantasia," and was followed by Miss Isabel G. Shortlidge, who read an original poem, dedicated to the descendants of George and Jane Chandler. After an instrumental selection, "When I Know that Thou Art Near Me," came the address, "Our Early American Ancestors," by Gilbert Cope, genealogist of the Association.

Mr. Cope's address was prepared in great detail. Beginning by emphasizing the value of the study of family history, as the study of a movement of which we are ourselves a part, the speaker went on to tell of the causes of his own earliest interest in genealogy, and of his later investigation of the Chandler history. He related at length his discovery of old documents—inventory, deeds, wills; of the widening of his search to the interrogation of members of the family; and, finally, to the investigation of English records, in which notable finds were made. He detailed the individual history of the early members of the Chandler family in Pennsylvania, and told of the more important doings of descendants in later generations.

Some of the sources mentioned by Mr. Cope are now difficult to locate, and we are indebted to the text of his address for several of the most salient facts of family record.

Then followed a solo by Miss Kate H. Chandler, "A Hundred Years to Come." A poem, addressed to the "Association of the Descendants of George and Jane Chandler," by Miss Alwilda J. C. Thornton, of Smithfield, Ohio, was then read. Next came the reading of a communication from Judge Stephen N. Lindley, of Fairbury, Nebraska, in which the writer paid tribute to "the sturdy Quaker ancestors" in a kind of narrative, illustrative of the settlement of the West by hardy pioneers from the East, among which were not lacking some Chandlers, including his own ancestors.

The band then gave the "Pilgrims' Chorus," from "Tann-häuser." Miss Imogene Chandler then recited "The Brandy-wine," perhaps the best known of the pastoral poems by Elizabeth Margaret Chandler, who had composed it nearly sixty years before. The poem is printed in full in the news report of the occasion.

A selection by the band, "How Fair Thou Art!", ended the morning's program. Then came dinner. The afternoon was devoted to a promenade, to the photographing of the "family group," and to the inspection of curiosities, and of a collection of relics brought together for the occasion. It was a memorable day for the twelve hundred members of the Chandler clan who attended.

So much for the past. But with the fifty years that have rolled by since the Bicentennial, we have entered, not only upon a new century, but upon a new age. And we who come in automobiles to the 250th Anniversary of today, are not the same people who, with horse and buggy, came leisurely to the great gathering of 1887. It is not only that the children of that day are the grand-parents of today. With the harnessing of new forces, the scrapping of old contrivances and customs, we have become more and more used to an array of things which we cannot well do without; and so, from being masters of powers hitherto unknown, we have become, also, in a certain sense, the slaves. It is an age of strange, silent currents that bring to us, "out of thin air," not only the ticker-messages of half a century ago, but also even the voices and faces of men, from the utter ends of the earth. It is an age in which, as never before, the universal law of change becomes apparent to all, for what is new today may be already old tomorrow.

Are we the Chandlers of fifty years ago? Individually, yes and no. Many old friends are regrettably missing; they will not meet with us again today. Many who were not yet born when the Bicentennial was held, are here today, with their families, to mark the passing of another half century. And those of us who, as children, received the youngest, and therefore the most lasting, impressions of that great event, have long since reached the retrospective age. •

It is as a most fitting feature of this 250th Anniversary celebration, that the Chandler Family Reunion Committee have prepared this record of the descendants of George and Jane Chandler. Since the Bicentennial, much has been learned of the history of the family in England. In "Chandler of Oare," a pamphlet which is reproduced in the following pages, are embodied the results of the research made for Mr. Percy M. Chandler, in 1913, by Thomas Allen Glenn, on the early history of the family in Wiltshire. Special research in the parish of Pewsey, Wiltshire, by Mr. George Allen Chandler, of Bethlehem, Pa., has further yielded the dates of birth of all but one of the children of George and Jane Chandler. All available facts bearing on the life of Jane Chandler and her family, after their arrival in Pennsylvania, have been made the basis of an historical sketch, in which are reproduced, also, several of the more important wills and other documents, full authority being cited for all statements made.

This but paves the way for the family record itself. All the data compiled by Gilbert Cope, the genealogist of the Association on the occasion of the Bicentennial, has been ably and painstakingly arranged and renumbered by Mrs. L. Gertrude Fryburg, genealogist, who has also located and attached to the family tree numerous members of later generations. The system of numbering employed is the simplest possible, and by its aid any family line given in the book may be traced, either forward or backward, with a minimum of trouble.

Report of searches in relation to the ancestry of John and George Chandler who sailed from England to the Province of Pennsylvania, in the year 1686.

By

THOMAS ALLEN GLENN

(MELIDEN, PRESTATYN, NORTH WALES).

In the year 1686 John and George Chandler of Wiltshire removed to the Province of Pennsylvania. The date of their departure from England is fixed by a bond, dated 31st March, 1686, given by John Chandler of Oare in the parish of Wilcot and George Chandler of Great Hodge, both in the county of Wilts, to Robert Pyle of Stanton Bernard; by which the said John and George Chandler are jointly bounden for the repayment of a certain sum of money advanced them by the said Robert Pyle for the purposes of their intended voyage and venture. The said money was to be collected in Pennsylvania by Robert Pyle, jnr., and Nicholas Pyle (sons of the said Robert), who were duly empowered for that purpose by letters of attorney to them directed, and afterwards recorded in Pennsylvania.

The English home of John and George Chandler is further certainly identified by the will of the above George Chandler, then of the township of Chichester, in the county of Chester and Province of Pennsylvania, dated 13th of 11th month, 1699

From the assignment of a patent for land in the Province of Pennsylvania, dated 10th of 7th month (10 September, O.S.), 1688; the will of John Chandler, above cited, and the will of their father, John Chandler of Oare, dated 1683, it is proved that John Chandler and George Chandler were brothers. Owing to the condition of the Wilcot Parish Register, the baptism of John Chandler, the Pennsylvania colonist, has not been found; but George was baptized at Wilcot, 8 April, 1633, upon the day on which his mother (Ann) was buried. He acquired, after his marriage, a farm at Great Hodge in the adjoining parish of Pewsey, where he resided perhaps continuously until 1686, and where one or more of his children (by Jane his wife) were born. George Chandler died at sea during the voyage to America. He was the ancestor of the Chandler family of the county of Chester, Pennsylvania.4 John Chandler died in the township of Chichester, Pennsylvania, without issue.

John Chandler of Oare, the father of John and George, was the eldest son and heir of Thomas Chandler of Oare, and was baptized in the parish church of Wilcot, 23 February, 1602-3. He was a man well esteemed in the neighbourhood, and, upon the death of his father, in 1629, was immediately (1630) chosen Churchwarden of Wilcot in the latter's place; an office which he continued to hold almost continuously until his decease, in Richard Edmunds was second cousin to the testator.

John Chandler Churchwardens.

William [? Pyke] 1664

As one of the principal freeholders of Wilcot, John Chandler's name frequently appears on various minor records. He was juror in an inquisition held at Marlborough, 21 Jan., 15 Car. I, 1639 (Inq. P.M. John Gerrish; Chancery Inqs., Wilts; Court of Wards and Liveries, London), and in two others of the same year.2 John Chandler died at his house of Oare, in March, 1684, and was buried in Wilcot Churchyard, 26 March, "according to an Act for burying in Woolsec" (Woolsack). He married, first, about 1626, Ann —, who was buried at Wilcot, 8 April, 1633, being designated in the register "wife of John Chandler the younger." He married, secondly, Winifred —, who was buried at Wilcot, 16 May, 1679. By Ann, his first wife, John Chandler had, in addition to sons John and George, abovenamed, a daughter Anne, baptized 30 March, 1631, who died unmarried, and was buried at Wilcot, 30 May, 1687, being described in the register as "of Oare." The children of John Chandler by his second wife, Winifred, were: Daniel, baptized 19 July, 1635, buried 30 October of the same year; and Walter, who was baptized 20 January, 1636. This Walter Chandler married Ruth ——, and had issue by her: (a) Ruth, baptized at Wilcot, 5 June, 1668; (b) Winifred, baptized 6 February, 1669 (1669-70). The will of John Chandler, who describes himself as "of Ore (Oare) in the parish of Willcot (sic) in the county of Wilts," is dated [blank] 1683, 35 Car. II (30 January, 1683, to 29 January, 1684). The testator bequeaths unto his daughter Anne Chandler his messuage called Crosse Hayes in Wilcott, together with certain other premises in the same parish, for life, with reversion as to part thereof to testator's three sons, John Chandler, George Chandler, and Walter Chandler. The testator constitutes his eldest son, John Chandler, executor, and appoints

This office appears to have been held for a long time by the Chandlers of Oare. John Chandler, senior, held it in 1633-4.

The fact that the members of this land-holding branch of the family were from an early period, chosen as jurors in various inquisitions, helps us to name the successive generations.

Edmund Brine of Pewsey, and John Andrews of Stowell in Willkot (Wilcot), overseers. This short will was proved in the Archdeaconry Court of Wilts, 17 October, 1684 (examined original filed will, Archdeaconry Court of Wilts, Somerset House, London).

The inventory of John Chandler's personal estate is filed with the will, and dated 11 February, 1684 (1684-5). The total valuation amounted to £264 6s. 8d., made up principally of household goods and farm stock. Taking into consideration the great difference in the purchasing power of money then as compared with the present day, it will be noted that the decedent was exceedingly prosperous. The freehold land not disposed of by the above will descended to John Chandler, the eldest son. George and Walter had, no doubt (according to the then custom), been suitably provided for at the time of their respective marriages.

It will be noted that John Chandler of Oare (died 1684) is, under date of 8 April, 1633, called "John Chandler the younger," and he is also so described upon succeeding his father (Thomas Chandler) as Churchwarden, in 1630. This designation was for the purpose of distinguishing him from his uncle, John Chandler "senior," or "the elder."

Thomas Chandler of Oare, father of John, was born at Oare about 1570, being son and heir of Nicholas, and succeeded to the Oare lands. He was Churchwarden from 1619 to 1629, and was buried in Wilcot Churchyard, 20 June of the latter year. He married, first, 19 July, 1602, at Wilcot Church, Anne (or Ann) Downham, who was buried at Wilcot, 25 June, 1620. He married, secondly, Martha—, who was living 15 November, 1630. After her husband's decease the latter probably left the parish and went to live with her own family, as no entry of her burial has been found in the register. Thomas Chandler had no children by her. Those of his first wife, Anne, were: (a) John baptized 23 February, 1602 (1602-3); and (b) Gabriel, who is mentioned in his father's will, but the record of whose baptism is missing.

The will of Thomas Chandler of Ore (Oare) in the parish of Wilcot, County of Wilts, dated 9 June, 1629, was proved at Marlborough, 15 November, 1630. The original will is filed among the Archdeaconry Court of Wilts wills, bundle for 1630, Somerset House. The testator mentions his son and heir John Chandler (of Oare) whom, with Marther his (testator's) (second) wife, he appoints executor. He also leaves a bequest to his second son, Gabriel. The testator further gives and bequeaths unto his (second) wife, Martha, a moiety of those lands called Fyshers Meade. The inventory of the personal estate of the decedent, filed with the will, shews a valuation of £310 12s. 0d., quite a large sum for those days. Taking into consideration the rental value of his lands, and other things, we may assume that Thomas Chandler enjoyed at the time of his decease an income equal to about £500 of our money, per annum.

Nicholas Chandler, the father of Thomas (and son of John), was born about the year 1540, and married at Wilcot church, 2 February, 1568 (1568-9), Edyth Spratt, who was buried in "Hewish" (Huish) Churchyard, 23 February, 1623 (1623-4). Huish adjoins Wilcot, but the entry of burial of Edyth Chandler is in the Wilcot register.

Nicholas Chandler, subsequent to his marriage, appears to have lived, until about 1577, in Huish and Hilcot. He acquired the Oare lands, which his heir, Thomas Chandler, inherited, by deed from his elder brother, Edmund, in 1601, in which year the latter suffered a recovery of the lands of "Woore" (Oare), by a fine levied by Nicholas Chaundler (Chandler), (Roll of the Feet of Fines, Wilts, Michaelmas term, 43-44 Eliz.). At the Michaelmas term of Court, 17 James I (1619), one Honora Lamb, widow, who appears to have been formerly widow of Edmund Chandler, brought suit against Thomas Chaundler (Chandler) of Oare, son and heir of Nicholas, to recover a moiety (apparently in right of dower) of the Oare and other lands in "Wilkott" (Wilcot), (Roll of the Feet of Fines, Wilts, Mich. term, 17 Jac. I). The Lay Subsidy Rolls shew that Edmund succeeded John Chandler at Ore (Oare), and from the Roll of 34 and 35 Henry VIII (1542-3), we find that two John Chandlers (father and grandfather of Nicholas) were then living in Wilcot parish. Nicholas Chandler, who was buried in Wilcot Church, 15 November, 1604, had by Edyth his wife the following children:

i. Thomas, of Oare, whose parentage is proved by (a) his succession to the Oare lands, and (b) the suit of Honora Lamb.

ii. John "the elder"; so called to distinguish him from his nephew, John "the younger." He married, 16 October, 1609, at Wilcot Church, Dorothy Hellyer, who was buried in the same Church, 20 February, 1633 (1633-4), being described as wife of John Chandler "the elder." John Chandler senior served as Churchwarden of Wilcot Parish from 1611 to 1619, and in 1633-4, at about which time he died.

iii. Edyth, buried 24 December, 1596.

- iv. Dorothy, buried 19 January, 1596 (1596-7). v. Ann, baptized 16 February, 1578 (1578-9).
- vi. Swithin, baptized 1 June, 1583; of whom presently. vii. Margaret, married 21 September, 1594, John Cheyney.

viii. Alice, married 8 December, 1600, George Benger.

ix. Martha, married 2 November, 1607, Richard Edmunds of Oare, alias Lawrence.

The above Richard Edmunds at the time of his marriage seems to have lived with the Chandler family (probably in their employ), and the records shew that an intimacy between the two families was long maintained. Richard Edmunds of Wilcot, grandson of the above Richard Edmunds and Martha Chandler, is named in the will of John Chandler of Pennsylvania, 1699, his second cousin, a circumstance which further confirms the pedigree back to Nicholas Chandler. Before proceeding with the ancestory of Nicholas, however, it may be well to record the data secured regarding some other of the latter's descendants.

John, the second son of Nicholas, called John Chandler "senior," married, as stated, 1609, Dorothy Hellyer. A son Thomas was baptized at Wilcot, 15 February, 1623 (1623-4); perhaps he had resided outside the parish since 1609, so that there may have been other children.

Swithin, the third son of Nicholas, baptized 1 June, 1583, was doubtless born on the Feast of St. Swithin (13 July), 1582. His wife is mentioned in the Wilcot register as Florence, and their children were: (a) William, baptized 6 February, 1613 (1613-14); (b) Ann, baptized 25 January, 1615 (1615-16), buried 2 February, 1615; (c) Swithin, baptized 9 February, 1616 (1616-17); (d) Nicholas, baptized 29 November, 1618, buried 20 July, 1619; (e) Elenor, baptized 11 June, 1620; (f) Nicholas, baptized 27 April, 1625; (g) Peter, baptized 28 June, 1626.

Gabriel Chandler, second son of Thomas, eldest son of Nicholas, had by Alice his wife, the following children baptized at Wilcot: (1) Gabriel, baptized 25 May, 1637, buried 25 September, 1655; (2) Thomas, baptized 6 January, 1639; (3) John, baptized 1 November, 1641; (4) William, baptized 24 May, 1644. This Gabriel Chandler, who lived "on the Hill," near Oare, was buried in Wilcot Churchyard, 2 October, 1659, and his wife "Alice Chandler upon the hill was buried according to an Act for burying in woolen," 27 April, 1683. Thomas Chandler, second son of Gabriel, seems to have been also buried at Wilcot, 18 January, 1699 (1699-1700).

Nicholas Chandler had, as we have seen, an elder brother, Edmund, who died without issue, and probably also brothers John, Robert and Henry. Of these, John married at Wilcot Church, 6 November, 1574, Joane Farr, Robert married, 20 October, 1569, Margaret Cheyler, and left the parish. In the Consistory Court of Sarem is a bond dated 2 June, 11 James (1613) of Agnes Chaundler of Pewsey, in the county of Wilts, widow, and Anthony Whiteharte, yeoman, in £40, for the said Agnes to faithfully administer the goods of her late husband Henry Chaundler, of Kepnell in the parish of Pewsey, deceased intestate. The inventory accompanying this bond bears date 28 May, 1613. During the course of this search a number of wills and administrations of the Wiltshire Chandlers were abstracted, especially those of descendants likely to have been rather nearly related to the Oare branch of the family. As these will probably prove of interest to descendants, a calendar of them is appended.

We now at length return to the pedigree of the Chandlers of Oare. The only records available for this purpose are the Lay Subsidy Rolls. These shew that three John Chandlers succeeded each other at Oare, the last being father of Nicholas. The first John must have been born somewhere about the year 1450, and was living 16 Henry VIII (1524) when, under the designation of John Chaundeler, he is assessed at £10 (Lay Subsidy Roll, Wilts, 16 Henry VIII; Swanborough Hundred, parish of Willcotte. No. 197, Pub. Rec. Office). In the same roll we find that a Thomas Chaundeler, no doubt a brother of John.

was assessed in the same year, in the adjoining parish of Alcannyngs, at 20 shillings. The second John, who was probably born about the year 1480, was living 35 Henry VIII (1543), in which, and as of the preceding year, under the designation of John Chandeler, he is assessed as of Ore (Oare) at £10 (Lay Subsidy Roll, Wilts, 34 and 35 Henry VIII, Swanborough Hundred. No. ½76, Pub. Rec. Office). The third John, whose birth may be set down approximately as of the year 1510, is assessed in the same roll under his father, in Wylcote parish, at £3.

Having thus recorded the pedigree of the Chandlers of Oare for nearly two and a half centuries prior to their removal to the Province of Pennsylvania, an endeavour was made to ascertain the origin and something of the history of the earlier Chandlers of Wiltshire, from whom the Oare branch descended.

At an inquisition taken by Nicholas Jordan, and others, by virtue of a writ tested at Canterbury, 10 March, 36 Henry III (1252), it was stated upon oath that the land of Tryenestone (Trehanston) (in Romney Marsh, in the county of Kent), which the brethren of the King's Hospital of Ospring have of the king's bailiwick, was, immediately after the Conquest of England, given to a certain knight named Tryan. Afterwards Alberic de Marinis held it at the pleasure of "our lord, the King Henry that now is" (Henry III). And . . . because the said Alberic ill-treated the tenants, the king took away from him the said land, and conferred it on Walter de Burgo; and, after Walter de Burgo, our lord the king gave it to Thomas de Normanvill, to hold during pleasure, and after the said Thomas, Nicholas de Chandeler held it, of the gift of our lord the king, during pleasure, and afterwards our lord the king conferred it upon Jordan de Monte Martini, to hold during pleasure; and after the said Jordan our lord the king conferred it on the brethren of his hospital of Ospreing, who still hold it. The said land is worth yearly, in rents and other issues of land, 100 shillings.

Nicholas de [le] Chandeler, notwithstanding the regrant of Trehanston, remained in favour with the crown. Perhaps the king rewarded him with other lands on the borders of Wiltshire and Gloucestershire. At any rate we afterwards find him in this neighbourhood. It seems probable that he was with Prince Edward at the battle of Evesham, at which Simon de Montfort was signally defeated, for 25 April, 1 Edward I (1271-72), there is an order to the Treasurer of the Exchequer to pay this Nicholas le Chaundeler, for faithful services, an annuity for life by the hands of the Sheriff of Gloucester (Close Roll, 1 Edward I).

Richard de [le] Chaundeler, a son, doubtless, of Nicholas, was seated in Stoudfold, or Stotfold, Hundred, Wilts, before 1280.

Richard, son of Richard de Chaundeler of Wilts, is first mentioned in an enquiry in 9 Edward I (1280-1), regarding the lands of one Richard le Blunt, whose tenant by military service the said Richard Chandler the younger was. The lands of le Blunt are described as in Stotfold, which is intended for Stoudfold or Stodfold, and adjacent to Wilcot. There can, indeed, be very little doubt that the lands which Chandler held under le Blount included Oare. Shortly after this, however, we find this branch of the family acquiring property in adjacent places, viz: in Etchilhampton Parish, two or three miles from Oare, in Devizes Parish, about four or five miles distant, and in the Hundred of Heytesbury, about fifteen miles away. In the few rolls in which their names are mentioned the descendants of Richard are thus described as sometimes of one place, at other times as of another. This has resulted, in the absence of Chancery Inquisitions and information from the De Banco Rolls, and certain other records, in some confusion as regards the exact relationship of those who succeed each other—whether, for instance, son or nephew. On the other hand, the descendants did not begin to multiply very rapidly until the sixteenth century, and those who do appear in the records of their day are surely of the landholding line, i.e., the direct ancestors of the Oare branch.

Of Richard le Chandler (or Chaundeler) the second we find considerable. On Saturday next after the Feast of St. Dunstan, 30 Edward I (1302), he was one of the jurors in an Inquisition taken by John de Hertrugg, Sheriff of Wilts, at Cherleton next Uphaven, as to whether Roger la Warre shall give his manor of Rustesal to Roger de Stocke and Alice his wife, or not (Chancery Inq. ad quod damnum, file 38, no. 13).

On 3 May, 35 Edward I (1307), an Inquisition was taken at Lyttletone Paynel (in the parish of Lavington) concerning William Paynel and the manor of Lyttletone, Richard le Chaundelyr being a juror (Chancery Inq. ad quod damnum, 35 Edward I, file 64. no. 20).

On 29 May, 35 Edward I (1307), an Extent of the knights' fees, and other fees, of Roger le Bygod, Earl of Norfolk, was made at Uphaven, by Richard le Chaundeler and other jurors (Chancery Inq. P.M., Ser. 1, 35 Edward I. no. 116).

The same Richard, under the designation of Richard le Chandeler, was one of the jurors in an Inquisition taken at Stapellavynton, 13 Edward II (1319), after the death of John Michel (Inq. P.M., 13 Edward II, no. 1).

It seems clear that Richard was succeeded by Roger Chaundeler who, during the lifetime of Richard, was a juror in Inquisition taken at Devizes, 12 Edward II (1318), after the death of John Paynel (Chancery Inq. P.M., 12 Edward II, no. 50). At this time Roger is described as "de Ryngesbourn." He was dead before 1 Edward III (1327-8), when Matilda Chaundeler, evidently his widow, and Simon Chaundeler are assessed in as holding the Chandler lands in Echelhampton and neighbourhood (Lay Subsidy Roll, Wilts, 1 Edward III, Hundred of Swanborough, Echelhampton, no. 7, Pub. Rec. Office).

Willam le Chaundeler of this family and perhaps a brother of Simon, is mentioned as "a constant attendant upon the service of Queen Isabella 'the she wolf of France,' " consort of Edward II; and, as of the queen's retinue, was granted protection to 7 February, 1322, at Gloucester, 15 Edward II (Patent Roll, 15 Edward II). It is supposed that this William was head of the Werminster and Heytesbury Hundred Chandlers. Walter le Chaundeler, of this branch, was seated at Werminster, 7 Edward III (1334-5) (Lay Subsidy Roll, Wilts, 7 Edward III no. 1968), and 8 Henry VI (1429-30) William Chandler and one Bolewortley were deforciants in a fine touching the manor of Hornyngsham, whereof the said William was lord.

To return to the Oare line. Simon Chaundeler is succeeded on the Lay Subsidy and other Rolls by John Chaundeler, whose name appears on the Poll Tax Roll of 2 Richard II (1378-9) (no. 196 A, Pub. Rec. Office). He appears to have been the only landholder of the name of that time in Wilts, so we may presume him identical with the John Chandler who in 17 Richard II (1393-4) preferred a request for protection in the matter of travelling abroad (in France) "in the service of the king"; granted 7 May, of the same year (Roll of France, 17 Richard II, memb. 6).

John was succeeded by Robert Chaundler of Devizes (and Oare), who is named in a Fine Roll of 8 Henry VI (1429-30), in reference to a payment to the king (Fine Roll, 8 Henry VI). The succeeding generation seem to have taken a rather too active part in the politics of their day, for we find that on 27 August, 1465, the king (Edward IV) commissioned Thomas Yonge, John Butler, knight, and others, to enquire into the case of John and Thomas Chaundeler, of Wilts, then prisoners in Gloucester castle (Patent Roll, 5 Edward IV, memb. 22). It is certain that the Chaundelers were partisans of the house of York; but the cause of their favour with the crown can only be surmised. Further light is thrown on the subject by a crown grant of 18 February, 1466, by which Thomas Chaundler, then "parson" of the parish church of Menestake (Meon-Stoke) in the diocese of Winchester (and not very far from Wilcot), is given a canonry in the king's free chapel of St. Stephen in the palace of Westminster, and a prebend in that chapel (Pat. Roll, 6 Edward IV, memb. 15). Thomas being a priest the line of descent would be through John, who, there can be no doubt, was father of John Chaundler of Oare, living 1524.

The ancestry of Nicholas le Chaundeler, who, as we have seen, removed from the county of Kent, where the family appears to have first settled, is obscure. He was of Norman descent, and probably the first of his line to live permanently in England. The name occurs frequently in Normandy; but no important genealogical data can be gathered from the scattered and disconnected references. The only definite information at hand comes from the Rolls of France, from which it is ascertained that Hamo le Chandler, who appears from other circumstances to be of the Wilts family, had safe conduct from England to or through the lordship of l' Aigle, 1418-19, and that Peter Chaundeler, doubtless a kinsman, had safe conduct to travel to Normandy, 1451-2 (Norman Roll, 6 Hen. V, pt. II.; Roll of France, 30 Hen. VI). We may therefore assume that the family came from l' Aigle. The name was originally le Chaundeler, not de Chaundeler, which is a mere mistake of the scribe who so recorded it. Chaundeler (afterwards contracted to Chandler) as a surname, has nothing to do with the trade of "Chandler," as sometimes stated. It appears to be derived from the court office of light-bearer, and arose in the same way as the surnames of le Marshall, le Chancellor, &c. In very ancient times this officer had, no doubt, been simply candle-bearer to the sovereign; but in the tenth or eleventh centuries had become a recognized official of the Royal, or Ducal, household. Thus the laws of the Welsh, in the tenth century, mention, among the twenty-four servants of the Court, the Kanuylyt, of the King and Queen. In this way several families of le Chaundeler might (and doubtless did) arise, not in the least related to each other. No connection, for instance, can be established between the le Chandelers of Wilts, and those of Norfolk, Suffolk, and the northern counties. Moreover, the arms borne by these families are totally different. The arms attributed to Chaundler of Wilts are: Chequy argent and gules, on a bend engrailed sable three lions passant or. The Candeler, or Chaundler, family of Hyde Barton, Hants, a branch of the Wiltshire family, bore: Chequy or and gules, on a bend engrailed sable three lions passant guardant of the first.

During the course of this search the following references to members of the Chandler family of Wilts, whose place in the pedigree could not, in some cases, be even approximately determined, were noted.

13 Edw. I (1285), Wednesday next before the purification of the blessed Mary. Inquisition held before Sir John de Wotton, Sheriff of Wilts, as to what lands and tenements Richard Sterre holds in the manor of Marlebergh (Marlborough), by the oath of German le Chaundeler and other jurors (Chancery Inq. P.M., ser. 1, no. 27, 13 Edw. I). Marlborough is near Wilcot and not far from Etchilhampton.

In the Lay Subsidy Roll of 7 Edw. III (1334-5) (Wilts, no. <sup>196</sup>8), John le Chaundeler is taxed in lands and tenements in the Aldermary of St. Martin, Salisbury. This was the father of

John Chaundeler, or Chandler, Founder of Trinity, Salisbury, whose deed for the second foundation of which, bears date 1396 (see also Inqs. 16 and 17 Rich. II; Cal. of Inqs., P.M., vol. 3, fo. 166 and 179). John Chaundeler 3rd, son of the founder, entered the Church, becoming Dean of Sarum (Salisbury), 1414, and Bishop of Salisbury, 1426-7. The following suits relate to the last John: 2 Hen. IV, Thomas Chapelyr, pltf., John Chandeler, clerk, John Aynell, clerk, and Nicholas Partutte, clerk, deforciants, touching the manor of Chissingbury, and lands in Lytelcote, and tenements in New Sarum (Roll of the Feet of Fine, Wilts, 2 Hen. IV).

5 Hen. IV, Thomas Chapelyr, pltf., John Chandler, clerk, deforciant, touching messuages in New Sarum (Roll of the Feet of Fine, 5 Hen. IV). 12 Hen. IV, Thomas Ringewood, pltf., Thomas Chapelyr, John Chaundeler, Dean of New Sarum, and John Aynell, clerk, deforciants touching premises in Godeshill, Hants, and messuages in New Sarum.

1 Edw. III (1327-8), Isabel Chaundeler, taxed in land in Dormunestown, Wilts (Lay Subsidy Roll, Wilts, no. 196). 7 Edw. III (1334-5), John Chandeleer taxed under Domerham, probably identical with John of Salisbury, who held lands in a number of places in Wilts (Lay Subsidy Roll, Wilts, no. 196). A second John is named on this roll (dorso); probably in Heytesbury. 7 Edw. III (1334-5), Richard Chandeler taxed under Swallowcliffe, Donworth Hundred. He, perhaps, was a brother of Roger, and son of the 2nd Richard (Lay Subsidy Roll, Wilts, no. 196).

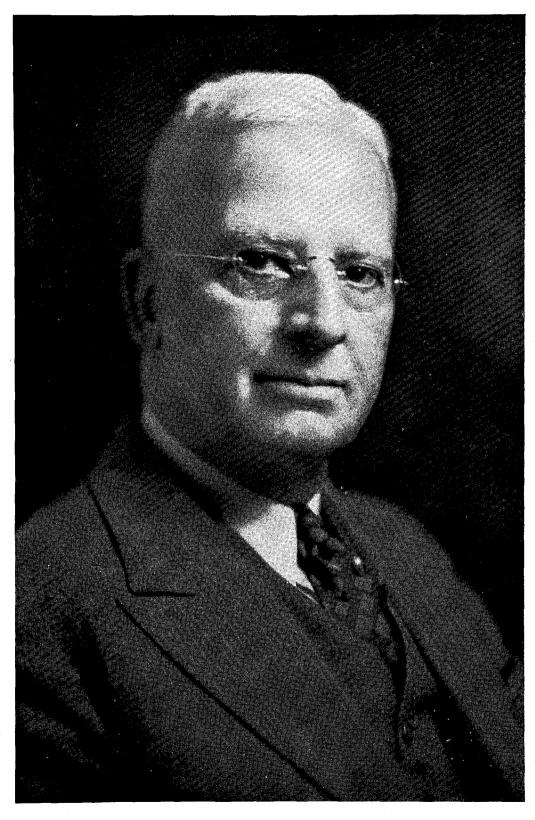

Thomas Chaundeler, probably of the Wilts family, was Chancellor of the University of Oxford, 1445.

In 1637, one William Chandler, with his wife Annis and four children, removed from England to Roxbury, Massachusetts, where he died in 1640. It is supposed that his eldest child, Hannah, was born in 1629, and if so William Chandler was probably born about 1600 to 1606. No record of the place of his birth in England has been preserved. Some time between 1775 and 1785, however, the Rev. Thomas Bradbury Chandler, D.D., then in London, seems to have instituted a search regarding the ancestry of his great-great-grandfather, William. The only result of this investigation extant, is a blazon of arms inscribed: "He beareth checkie, Argent and Azure, on a bend of the first, sa., three lyons passant, gules. By the name of Chandler." The original, which appears to have been a design for a book-plate, gives as the crest, a pelican in her piety (tinctures not specified). This achievement appertains to a branch of the Chaundelers, or Chandlers, of Wilts and Hants, and if we believe the statement that Dr. Chandler based his claim to bear these arms on information furnished him through the College of Arms, it is evident that he must have produced evidence that his ancestor, William Chandler was descended from the Wiltshire family; and in support of this, a tradition of kinship has long existed in the New England and Pennsylvania families. On the other hand, William Chandler the New England colonist, was certainly a brother-in-law of George Alcock, whose English home must, therefore, have been adjacent to that of the Chandlers; and according to a tradition, for which, however, no authority exists, George Abbot of Andover, Massachusetts, came from Yorkshire on the same ship as the Chandlers. He may, of course, have sailed from a southern port. Some of the colonists at Andover were from Hants and Wilts.

A search in the wills and several parish registers of Wilts brought to light several William Chandlers born about the same time as William of Roxbury, all of whose homes were adjacent to Oare, and whose connection with the Oare Chandlers could be traced in a tentative way. Most of these were eliminated by proof that they were in England after 1637. If of the Wilts family, the most probable descent of William of Roxbury would be from the Chandlers (or Chaundlers) of Woodborough. No definite conclusion, however, can be arrived at until the records of George Alcock, George Abbot, and the Rev. Thomas Hooker (father of Alcock's wife) are further developed ("The Chandler Family," George Chandler, Worcester, Mass., 1872, 1883).

WRITTEN FOR THE CHANDLER REUNION COMMITTEE By Charles R. Barker

THE ancient home of the Chandlers is situated in the Northern Division of Wiltshire, and, as nearly as may be, in the geographical center of that county. Here, within a few miles of one another, will be found all those places already mentioned, or hereafter to be mentioned, in connection with the life of the family in England.

Between two great masses of chalk hills—the Salisbury Downs on the south; the Marlborough Downs on the north lies the Vale of Pewsey. Through this valley, on its way to the Channel, winds the picturesque Avon; the Kennet and Avon Canal, connecting the navigation of the Lower Avon with that of the Kennet, a tributary of the Thames, also passes through, from west to east; while the Great Western Railroad, from London to Bristol, in general parallels the canal, and makes a stop at the pleasant village of Pewsey.

In the midst of the Vale stands the church of St. John the Baptist, which serves Pewsey parish. About two miles northwest is Holy Cross Church, to which repair the parishioners of Wilcot; while several miles farther, in the same direction, the church of All Saints marks the center of the parish of Stanton, St. Bernard (which we shall hear of, later, as Stanton Barnard). East Lavington, also called, from being a market town, Market Lavington, lies about ten miles to the southwest of Pewsey and Wilcot. Its parish church of St. Mary's, set on a high hill, is a local landmark, and has given to the place the nickname of Steeple Lavington. Oare, in the parish of Wilcot, and Great

Hodge, in that of Pewsey, are villages so diminutive as not to be found, under any spelling, in Lewis' Topographical Dictionary of England, published a century ago; and they were no larger in George Chandler's day.<sup>1</sup>

That the cause of the emigration of George Chandler was not his persecution as a Friend, is shown by the fact that all of his children, with the possible exception of Ann, the youngest, were baptized at the parish church of Pewsey, showing a regular attendance of the family there.2 Furthermore, there is not a single mention of the family name in the Friends' registers of Gloucester and Wilts.<sup>3</sup> It is true that one or two persons named Chandler, living in Wiltshire, were persecuted as Friends. Chief of these was William Chandler, of Bagley, who, in July, 1664, was committed to jail "for not setting forth his Tithe," and who, when he came to trial, three years later, had a verdict against him, and had taken away from him a yoke of oxen worth 13 poundsmuch more than the amount of his fine. He seems to have persisted in his error, for in 1670, he was again fined for refusing to pay toward the repairs to Bagley church.4 But it is not known that he was at all related to George Chandler, the emigrant.

Numerous as were "the people called Quakers," there must have been a much greater number who sympathized with them, not only in their beliefs, but as friends, neighbors and relatives, and who resented, even if not openly, their sufferings "for conscience sake." To these, the Quaker emigration to Pennsylvania offered an unexpected way out of a situation which was becoming intolerable, while the promise of economic betterment was, for many, the additional weight that turned the scale.

We have good reason to believe that the Chandlers, although not Friends, were closely associated with some of those who were persecuted for their Quaker faith. For in 1660, one Edward Bezer, of Street, in Wiltshire, was imprisoned for refusing to take an oath, while one, Ralph Withers, also of Wiltshire, in the same year was committed to prison for "meeting with friends." Now, both of these names are found later in Chichester, Pennsylvania; and in March, 1690, George Chandler, Jr. (son of the immigrant), being then somewhat less than nineteen years of age, was bound to Edward Bezer, for two years and five months.

Again, Isaac Self, of Market-Lavington, Wiltshire, in August, 1658, was sent to prison for tithes, and lay there about six years. In 1670, for permitting a meeting to be held at his house, he was fined £20, and, while he lay in jail, had goods taken away, as a penalty for another meeting held at the same place. Years after, when this incident may well have been forgotten, by all but those chiefly concerned, the Board of Commissioners of Property of Pennsylvania makes the following minute:

10-22-1714.—"Isaac Self, of Market Lavington, in the County of Wilts, in Great Britain, by his Att'ry, George Chandler, in the County of Chester, in this Province, requests that he take up 500 acres of Land in this Province." 8

The sale of country lands in Pennsylvania was not conducted like the sale of lots from a town plot. Each purchaser bought a right to a specified number of acres of "rough and unseparated" (i.e, uncleared and unsurveyed) land. This right might be resold again and again, as a matter of speculation, until it finally came into the possession of a prospective, bona fide settler, who would then, in person or by attorney, present his papers to Penn's Board of Commissioners, sitting at Philadelphia, and request a warrant of survey. When this warrant was forthcoming, the Surveyor-General, to whom it was directed, would order one of his deputies to lay out the land wherever it was available. This was often in an out-of-the-way place, and at times much dissatisfaction resulted.

In selling his Pennsylvania lands, William Penn made use of a now antiquated form of grant, known as lease and release. As indicated by the name, this consisted of two distinct documents: the lease, putting the prospective purchaser in possession of the land, and the release, which was always dated one day later, releasing it to him as a tenant in possession for one day. The whole matter was a legal evasion of the existing law, which required that deeds be recorded, but that a release given a tenant in possession need not be made of record.

Although no official record, of this or any other kind, has come to light to prove that George Chandler, the emigrant (whom we shall hereafter call George Chandler, Sr.), purchased land in Pennsylvania, subsequent events show that he did so; while a letter from Daniel Smith, of Marlborough, Wiltshire, to John Harding, of Chichester, Pennsylvania, clinches the matter. In this letter, which bears date 7-17-1685, the writer, after referring to a purchase he has made of 500 acres in Pennsylvania, says:

"I have given a deed to George Chandler for 100 acres of it at any corner of the 500 acres of land together, and he to have all the benefit of the 500 acres till I dispose of it; he nor any he can hinder make no spoil of it. I desire thee to give them the best assistance thee can that it may go well with them, that they may give good encouragement to others to come into the country to dress the land. . . . I have desired G. Chandler to come to thee, and I hope he will bring the Governor's order with him to those that are entrusted to give warrants out for the taking up of the land." 10

Six months after the writing of the foregoing letter—not a lengthy period, considering the affairs to be settled—the next step is taken; namely, the raising of money for the voyage, and to meet the subsequent expense on arrival. On March 31, 1686, George Chandler, of Greathodge, in Wiltshire, and John Chandler, of Oare, in the parish of Wilcot, in the same county, bind themselves to Robert Pyle, of Stanton Barnard (Stanton, St. Bernard), also in Wiltshire, for the sum of twenty pounds, twelve shillings, which sum the creditor is to collect by means of a power-of-attorney forwarded to Robert Pyle, Jr., and Nicholas Pyle, living in Pennsylvania. Daniel Smith, perhaps the writer of the letter just quoted, is a witness of this transaction.<sup>11</sup>

Now comes the blank in the picture. We do not know when or where the family embarked, on what ship they took passage, or toward what port they sailed. As the death of George Chandler took place at sea, near the end of December, 1687, it may be inferred that the voyage had begun at least some weeks earlier, unless the vessel were blown far out of her course, or (which seems unlikely) did not sail directly for the Delaware. The crossing of the Atlantic in those days was a momentous undertaking; the smallness of the ships, without motive power to withstand stormy seas, made it the part of wisdom for navigators to depart in the spring, so that, not having to confront the tempestuous billows of winter, they would arrive in Pennsylvania in the early fall. Edward Jones, who arrived in the good ship "Lyon," in August, 1682—preceding Penn himself by about two months—wrote, in the same month, to John ap Thomas, in Wales, that the "Lyon" had taken eleven weeks to make the voyage, because of contrary winds. 12 On the other hand, William Penn, on his second voyage to Pennsylvania, arrived in November or December; and finally departed, two years later, in November, so that his last voyage was undertaken in mid-winter.<sup>13</sup>

From the parish register of Pewsey; from a family tradition to the effect that George and Jane Chandler brought with them four sons and three daughters (a tradition which is well borne out by subsequent events); and from records to be quoted later, we are able to make up the shipping-list of the Chandler family as follows:

Their children:

George, aged about 16 years. Swithin, aged about 13 years. Jane, aged about 11 years. William, aged about 9 years. Thomas, aged about 6 years. Charity, aged about 4 years. Ann, aged about 3 years.

There are two possible additions to the above list. John Chandler, eldest child of George and Jane, would have been nearly nineteen years old at the time of his father's death. There is no record, however, that he ever arrived in this country, so, unless he, too, died on shipboard, he must have deceased in England. And John Chandler, brother to George, Sr., whose interests were bound up with his, may well have been a passenger, also.

Family tradition as to the voyage and subsequent adventures of the Chandler family has come down to us in two definite statements. The first of these was obtained by Watson, the annalist, probably more than a century ago, from the widow of Isaac Parrish, of Philadelphia. Mrs. Parrish (née Sarah Mitchell) was the daughter of Abraham and Sarah (Robins) Mitchell; Sarah Robins was the daughter of Samuel and Ann (Chandler) Robins; and Ann Chandler was the daughter of George and Jane Chandler.<sup>14</sup>

Here is what Watson says:

"I heard by the late Mrs. Isaac Parrish, an aged lady, an anecdote of her relative, the widow Chandler. Mrs. Chandler came to Philadelphia at the first landing; having lost her husband on the shipboard (probably from the small pox), who was left with eight or nine children. Her companions prepared her the usual settlement in a cave on the river bank. She was a subject of general compassion. The pity was felt towards herself and children, even by the Indians, who brought them frequent supplies as gifts. Afterward a Friend, who had built himself a house, gave them a share in it. In future years, when the children grew up, they always remembered the kind Indians, and took many opportunities of befriending them and their families in return." 15

Mrs. Isaac Parrish was about nineteen years old when her grandmother died, in 1758, and must have had ample opportunity of hearing, at first hand, the tale which she herself afterward related to Watson. This account, however, she gave when at an advanced age, and it must be remembered that she had received it from an aged woman who, in turn, was recalling her own impressions received as a very small child.

The second statement, which is somewhat more detailed, was written down by Dr. Joseph Parrish, son of Isaac Parrish, and follows (with a short preface by his son, Dillwyn Parrish):

GEORGE CHANDLER

Baptized at Wilcott, Cheshire, 1633; Died at sea en route for Pennsylvania December 13, 1687

By

Joseph Parrish, M.D.

It would be appropriate in this place to copy a short unfinished sketch which was found among our dear father's papers, in his own handwriting, connected with the ancestry of the Chandler Family, from whom our grandmother was immediately descended.

"Our ancestor of this name left England with his wife and seven children (four sons and three daughters), and embarked for Pennsylvania in the early settlement of the province. They were of the religious Society of the people called Quakers, who sought among the untutored children of the wilderness, that liberty to worship their Creator according to their consciences, which was denied them in their native land.

On the passage to America, the husband and father of this family died. His widow and children arrived at the spot where Philadelphia now stands, and lived for a time on the banks of the Delaware in a cave. It is related that the cave was built over the stump of a tree, which served all the purposes of a table, and was a fixture in their plain and simple establishment. The affecting circumstance of a widow and eight children deprived in the course of the voyage of their natural protector excited the sympathy of the Indians, and family tradition gratefully records their kindness. They were in the practice of carrying venison to the widow and fatherless children, and on one occasion near the time of Christmas, when she was wishing for some substitute for minced pies, an Indian presented her with dried apples and whortleberries which answered the purpose instead of currants and plums.

The sailors carved a nutmeg grater for her on shipboard as a token of their sympathy.

One of the neighbors who had come with them to make a settlement for his family, had built a house, and put some grain into the ground, and being about to return to England for his family, offered to the widow Chandler and her children all the benefits of his establishment. After residing some time in the cave the widow and her family took up lands and formed a settlement on the Brandywine, in the neighborhood of Centre Meeting House, about seven miles above Wilmington. The daughter of this family was my great-grandmother. Although a little girl when they arrived in this country, she well remembered her father's death on shipboard. She married Samuel Robins, and had three daughters, of whom my grandmother, Sarah Mitchell, was one. The widow Chandler was in the practice of spending part of her time in this city, with her daughter, my great-grandmother, and part with her sons on the Brandywine." 16

Whether due to Watson or to his informant, there are several errors in the account which he gives us as having been received from Mrs. Parrish. Mrs. (Jane) Chandler did not come to Philadelphia "at the first landing," if by that is meant the landing of the first settlers, for, as we have seen, the family were still on the water in December, 1687, five years or more after the founding of Philadelphia. Nor was she left with "eight or nine children," eight only having been accounted for, of whom it is doubtful if the eldest ever made the voyage. The account given by Dr. Parrish says that there were "seven children (four sons and three daughters)," although later he speaks of "a widow and eight children."

If, as Dr. Parrish states, the family "were of the religious Society of Friends," they cannot have been so before the birth of Ann, the youngest (whose baptismal record has not been found), and even if we assume that the absence of that record indicates the conversion of the family to Quakerism, at that time, it is strange that no record of them is found in the Friends' registers, either in Wiltshire or in Pennsylvania, and that no certificate recommending them to Friends in America is found recorded here!

Romantic as is the picture of the Indians providing food for the helpless family, it can scarcely be doubted that this belief is based on a misunderstanding of conditions as they existed in Penn's day. That the Indians brought food, there can be no doubt, but it was for purposes of trade, and doubtless some small payment was made in return, the meaning of which would naturally escape the understanding of a small child. Edward Jones, in the letter already quoted, says, "We are amongst the English, which sent us both venison and new milk, and the Indians brought venison to our door for six pence ye quarter." A contemporaneous account of the same settlers says that "they were in their necessities supplied by the natives with venison and wild fowl. Their first cows to milk were obtained from New Castle, Del., and divided among the neighbors." 17

The foregoing extracts serve to show that, even in 1682, Pennsylvania was not entirely a wilderness—and the Chandlers did not arrive until nearly five years later! It is true that settlers arriving in the fall were too late to plant for the coming year; but food was abundant. To quote Penn's own account, written in 1685:

"It has been often said we were starv'd for want of food—and when this was contradicted, and they assured we had plenty both of Bread, Fish and Flesh, then it was objected that we were forc't to fetch it from other places at great charges; but neither is all this true, tho all the world will think we must either Carry Provisions with us or get it of the neighbourhood till we had gotten Houses over our Heads and a little land in tillage we fetch't none. Nor were we wholly kept by neighbours." 18

To this he adds, that there are now two markets every week, and that for the entertainment of "Strangers and Workmen" there are seven ordinaries, where a good meal can be had for six-pence sterling.<sup>19</sup>

A thriving town must have greeted the Chandlers on their arrival. Its progress is best illustrated by Penn's own words. In July, 1683, he wrote to Henry Savel:

"I suppose we have 80 houses in our town, and about 300 farmers near it to help us with provisions, and merchants and mechanics to accomodate us with their goods." <sup>20</sup>

Two years later, he wrote:

"We have had about Ninety Sayl of Ships with Passengers since the beginning of '82. . . . The estimate of the People may thus be made: Eighty to each Ship, which comes to Seven Thousand Two Hundred Persons. At least a Thousand there before, with such as from other places in our neighbourhood are since come to settle among us; and I presume the Births at least equal to the Burials. . . I mentioned in my last Account that from my Arival, in Eighty-two, to the Date thereof, being ten Moneths, we had got up Fourscore Houses at our town. . . . From that time to my coming away, which was a Year within a few Weeks the Town advanced to Three hundred and fifty-seven houses; divers of them large, well built, with good Cellars, three stories, and some with Belconies." <sup>21</sup>

Penn also quotes a letter from Robert Turner, as follows:

"Now as to the Town of Philadelphia it goeth on in Planting and Building to admiration both in the front & backward, and there are about 600 Houses in 3 years time." 22

That portion of the Chandler narrative which might seem the most fantastic; namely, the life in a cave, is, on the contrary, the best substantiated of all. For it is indeed true that the first settlers, while engaged in building permanent homes, found temporary refuge by burrowing into the high banks of the Delaware, and having thus three walls and a roof, which required little reinforcement, had only to provide the front, in order to find security against whatever weather might come. In time, they passed these "tourist houses" on to others. Penn permitted these "caves" to remain for three years, after which they were to revert to him; but in the interim some of them became infested with undesirable characters. On 5-26-1685, Penn wrote to "the magistrates of Philadelphia," in part as follows:

"2ly Friendly I desire you to purge thos caves in Philadelphia. They are mine by license and time, the 3 years are expired. I would have the suspected forthwith ordered to get up housing elsewhere, and the empty caves to accomodate the poor families that may come over, tho they may not stand long before men's doors." 23

"Notwithstanding," [says Westcott], "the notice of 1685 that the caves should be evacuated, they still continued to be inhabited for more than a year longer, until the Governor again called the attention of Councils to them, as we learn by the following, from the journal of 2d mo. 13th 1687:

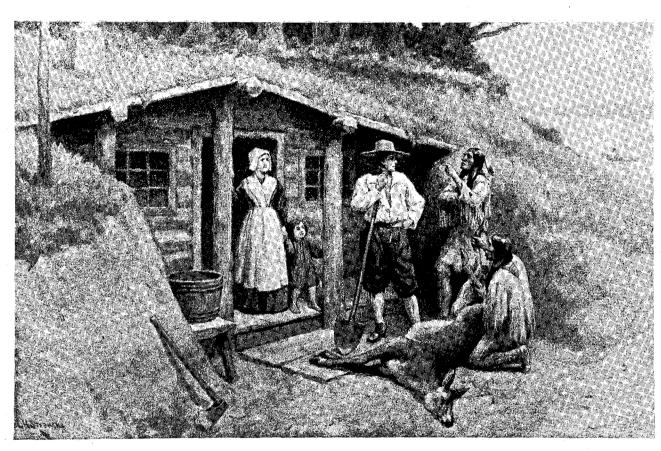

"'By Express Order from ye Gov'r to the Prov'll Councill, that notice be given to all persons concerned in ye Caves or houses built upon ye banks of this Towne, on Delaware side, unless those Leased by the Gov'r and not yet Expired, do, by ye 20th of ye next month, provide for themselves other habitations, in order to have the said Caves or houses Distroyed or otherwise Disposed of as the Gov'r shall see meet." "24

Before following farther the fortunes of Jane Chandler and her children (whose life in Philadelphia rests only on tradition), it seems well to consider two other persons of the same surname, who had arrived somewhat earlier.

The first of these is John Chandler, wheelwright, who arrived in Philadelphia in 1685 or 1686, and who lived here thirty years. There is nothing to indicate his relationship to George Chandler, Sr. His name appears on the earliest extant tax-list of Philadelphia, under the act of General Assembly of May 15, 1693, "For Granting One Penny pound to King William and Queen Mary," his assessment being £40, and his tax 3s.

Other activities of his are recorded by the Board of Commissioners of Property, as follows:

"Signed a Pattent to John Chandler for a city Lott now granted to him for £10, dated the 25, 5 mo., 1715."  $^{34}$

The full text of the foregoing patent shows that John Chandler obtained, for £10, a lot of ground 306' x 49½', fronting on the south side of Mulberry (Arch) Street; which he had for some time held on rent.35

By the Will of John Chandler, signed on September 8, 1716, and proved on January 12, 1716/17, we learn that he had a wife Elizabeth and a daughter Mary, to whom he left all real estate, "as well as my house Lands & appurtenances in Pensilvania"; while to each of the children of his brother Richard, wheelwright, of Surrey, England, he made bequests.<sup>36</sup>

It is believed that Elizabeth, widow of John Chandler, is the person referred to as the owner of an ancient brick house on Appletree Alley (now Appletree Street), in the following article:

"Widow Chandler's two storied house is on the north side of Appletree Alley, north of Arch Street and between Fourth and Fifth. There can be little doubt it is one of the oldest buildings in the city except the Letitia house. It was erected for Jane, the widow of George Chandler. They left England in 1687, and she alone arrived here, for her husband died on the voyage. The widow lived for a time in a cave on the Delaware front. Possessed of means, she bought the lot between Fourth and Fifth Streets and Arch and Cherry, and on it built her house prior to 1700." 37

Although Townsend Ward attributes this house to the widow Jane Chandler, it is almost certain that he has confused two persons. On the other hand, as we have just shown, John Chandler, wheelwright, owned a large part of the block enclosed by Market, Arch, Fourth and Fifth Streets, so if the family possessions also included a brick house half a block away, it would not be surprising.

An Elizabeth Chandler witnessed the will of Lionel Brittin, of Philadelphia, on November 12, 1721.38

We now come to Jacob Chandler—whether or not related to George Chandler, Sr., we do not know, although certain circumstances make it appear that he was. Jacob Chandler first makes his appearance in London, where he follows the trade of basket-maker, on June 27, 1685, when he purchases from Robert Hart 250 acres of land in Pennsylvania, as is seen by the following minute of the Board of Property, made seventeen vears later:

"At a Session of the Commissioners at Philadelphia the 30th of the First Mo'th, 1702.

William Boswel, of Southwark, Poulterer, by Lease and Release, dated 10th and 11th of October, 1681, Purchased of the Prop'ry 500 acres of Land, and by Deeds dated 19th and 20th of 10br, 1681, sold one Moiety thereof to Robert Hart, of London, Plaisterer, to whom it was Surveyed at the same time with the aforegoing by Ch. Ashcorn. Robert Hart, by an indenture dated 27 of June 1685, convey'd the s'd Moiety to Jacob Chandler, of London, Basket maker, who by Deed dated 8th 1 mo., 1697, sold the same to Caleb Pusey, all which several parcels lying contigious in the Township of Middletown aforesaid." 39

Within a few months, he must have left for Pennsylvania, where he was living in the following January. 40 He perhaps first settled on Chester Creek, in what is now Delaware County, for in March, 1686, he acknowledged in Court the exchange, with Francis Harrison, of a moiety of 250 acres on Chester Creek for a moiety of 250 acres owned by the latter in Chiches-

ter Township, Chester (now Delaware) County. 41

The tract thus acquired, in part, by Jacob Chandler (and which was re-surveyed to him in 1703, when it was found to contain 280 acres) lay in what is now the upper part of Upper Chichester Township, Delaware County, between the East Branch of Naaman's Creek and a tributary of the same stream, having for its northwest boundary the line of Bethel Township. The road from Bethel to Chichester, when laid out in 1686, passed nearly through the center of this tract, the lower boundary of which was about three-quarters of a mile above Boothwyn Station, on the Philadelphia Division of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.42

This tract, because of a noted spring of water on the land, was known as "Jacob's Well." <sup>43</sup> It appears that Jacob Chandler became full owner of the land by the purchase of the other "moiety" (or half-interest), for in Tenth Month, 1687, Francis Harrison "passed over" to him, in Court, a deed for "three tracts of land laid out by lott in ye Township of Chichester Conteining one hundred twenty-six acres." <sup>44</sup>

In 1697, Jacob Chandler sold his interest in the land, purchased while he still lived in London, "lying in a place called Lamborne, in the township of Middletown, Chester County"; at that time, he was "resident in the Township of Chichester," 45 where he had probably been living for some years, his name being found on the township's assessment lists for 1693 and 1696. 46

The name of Jacob Chandler is found again and again in the court records of Chester County. He served on the Petty Jury, was several times, in 1690, made foreman of a jury, including the Grand Inquest, and in October, 1690, the Court appointed him one of the trustees for the care of the orphans of Edward Beazar.47 He must have been the type of man to whom estates may be safely entrusted, for in 1691 he was made overseer and executor by William Lester, of New Castle County. He served as overseer, also, of the estates of Morgan Druett (1695), Thomas Coeburne (1698/9), and Robert Wade (1698), the first-named living in New Castle County (then a part of Pennsylvania; now in Delaware), and the other two in Chester County.48 In 1693/4, he witnessed the will of William Hawkes (whom we shall meet again presently), and in 1699, he was made overseer by John Chandler (brother to George, Sr.), who called him simply "friend and neiboure." 49

For years, Jacob Chandler worked in harmony with the Society of Friends. But (as will be seen later) he brought no certificate from London, recommending him to Friends in Pennsylvania, and no mention of him is found in the Friends' registers in London, where he had been living just before his emigration. Other Chandlers abound in those registers, and, strangely enough, there is record of the burial of a Swithin Chandler, of the parish of Saviour's, Southwark, 8-30-1665. Surely, he was of the Wiltshire family! but whether or not related to Jacob, only future research can determine.<sup>50</sup>

The earliest mention found of Jacob Chandler as a resident of Pennsylvania (namely, 11-11-1685) shows him subscribing £2 10 shillings toward building a meeting-house upon a parcel of land granted by James Brown. 51 This was Chichester Meeting-House; previously, and since 1675, Friends had been meeting at each other's houses, and continued to do so, until the completion of their building. Chichester Monthly Meeting (later to be called Concord Monthly Meeting) had been formed in 1684, and in 1686 it was agreed that it should be kept alternately at Chichester and Concord. 52 On 12-13-1687, we note that the meeting was at Jacob Chandler's house. On 10-4-1688, he was made a trustee of the land conveyed by James Brown to "the people of god called Quakers in townshipe of Chichester." In third month, 1688, Jacob Chandler "offers to Sattisfie this meeting Conserning his Certificate," which he evidently did not possess, for at the next meeting he "produced the Testimony of two friends . . . instead of a Certificate," which satisfied the Meeting.58 He represented the Monthly Meeting for several years, at Chester Quarterly Meeting, and in 1689 was appointed by the latter body to take subscriptions "to encourage William Bradford to continue in the art and practis of printing." 54

However, toward the end of 1697, he is accused of a "disorderly manner" in meeting; and the meeting is informed that he "inclines to the Separates," or followers of George Keith, who was at that time preaching unorthodox doctrine. On 7-12-1698, after much dissatisfaction on the part of the meeting, things came to a head, when "Jacob Chandler was requested to sign the Yearly Meeting testimony against George Keith," and after a significant silence, we read, on 10-12-1698, "A testimony against Jacob Chandler, he having joined the "Separates." Subsequent to this final action, he had refused further use of his house to the Meeting, after that body had declared itself "not free to let him keep the Monthly book as he had usely done." Within a few years, he disappears from the records, and is said to have gone to Maryland. Of this, no evidence has been found, although a family of Chandler had been living at Port Tobacco, Charles Co., Maryland, since 1659. In 1703, the land of Jacob Chandler was resurveyed, so presumably he was living at that time. To the sidney of the same of the sidney of the same of the same

On March 27, 1724, a Jacob Chandler, of Upper Providence, county Chester, yeoman, and wife Elizabeth, conveyed to Samuel Edgell, of the city of Philadelphia, pewterer, for £24, a lot in Philadelphia, 49½ x 220′, formerly patented by William Penn to Robert Hart, 4-27-1684, and conveyed by Caleb Pusey, attorney for the son and heir of Robert Hart, to said Jacob Chandler. A comparison of the details of this sale with the minutes of the Board of Property, quoted above, make it appear very probable that both records refer to the same Jacob Chandler.

Before we leave Jacob Chandler altogether, it may be well to sum up the few facts which seem to indicate his relationship to the family of George Chandler. (1) Their lands in Chichester adjoined. (2) Jacob Chandler was made overseer by the will of John Chandler. (3) He witnessed the will of William Hawkes. The second and third facts may have resulted from the first, and the whole have been a matter of mere neighborliness.

Traditions differ as to whether Jane Chandler and her family sojourned at Philadelphia, before finally settling at Chichester, or whether their settlement at the latter place was made directly, and as soon as possible after the landing of the immigrants, which, in that case, would have been made at Upland

(now Chester). In the latter event, the newcomers did not face a wilderness, for Upland was a much older town than Philadelphia. As early as 1648, Swedes had settled there, and at least ten years (probably longer) before Penn's arrival, the Court of Upland, under the Duke of York's government, had been holding sessions there. Michener says, "The Friends had meetings for worship at each other's houses so early as 1675, in which year Robert Wade and divers others came over." The first monthly meeting of Friends held at Chester, of which there is record, was held 11-10-1681. Upland

"was the oldest settlement on the Delaware River known to the English shipowners and provincial authorities, as being on the west side of the river, and supposed to lie within the boundaries of Penn's grant, consequently most of the emigrants made their first landing there, and remained there until they had determined upon the places of their future residences in the Colony." 60

In 1682, Governor Markham, at the request of the inhabitants of Marcus Hook (a town below Upland), allowed them to change the name to Chichester. This name was extended to the surrounding township, which, in time, was divided into Upper Chichester and Lower Chichester. To the old town on the Delaware, however, the old name of Marcus Hook clung; today, a borough of that name embraces the site, while the name of Upland is preserved in another borough, a few miles away. All of these places, together with surrounding territory, are now in the county of Delaware, which was set off from Chester County in 1789.

Although Dr. Parrish states that Jane Chandler and her family "formed a settlement on the Brandywine," he evidently confuses her settlement with that made there much later by her sons. The earliest assessments extant for New Castle County make no mention of a Chandler settlement there. But on 1 mo. 9, 1687/8, James Browne, to whom had been granted, in 1685, a patent for 100 acres of land, in Chichester, assigned this patent to John and Jane Chandler, 68 the assignees being, as we know, the brother and the widow of George Chandler, Sr., who had died on shipboard. This property adjoined Jacob Chandler's on the southeast. Regarding the date of this patent, some confusion has arisen; as the transaction appears to have taken place before the death of George Chandler, Sr. The latter died at sea, December 13, 1687,64 while Smith's Atlas, omitting the double-dating, given above, makes the date of the patent 1 mo. 9, 1687. This date is correct, however, according to Old Style. March was, in any event, first month, and as the Old Style year did not begin until March 25th (Annunciation Day) it is clear that the ninth day of first month following December, 1687, would still be in the year 1687, so that the transaction took place about three months after George Chandler's death.

Although the inventory of George Chandler's estate was discovered by Gilbert Cope, many years ago in the Register's Office, which was then in a part of the old State House building, <sup>65</sup> Philadelphia, it is feared that it is now lost. No record exists of letters having been granted on the estate. <sup>66</sup> Fortunately, we have a photographic copy, from which we can transcribe the document,

From an inspection of the foregoing document, several things become evident. In the first place, it is not only an inventory; it is also an account, from which we obtain items of the family expenditure for food, clothing, etc. Second, the goods inventoried were owned jointly, as indicated by the word $\Psi$t (part) preceding every item except that of the personal wearing apparel of the deceased; the other partner being, of course, his brother John, the two brothers having (as already seen) bonded themselves jointly in England. Third, no administration was granted on the estate."

The explanation of these facts presents itself, when they are viewed in the light of contemporaneous happenings. An event was about to take place in the family; namely, the re-marriage of Jane Chandler; and it was necessary to settle the rather complicated family affairs. The widow and her brother-in-law owned both real and personal property in common; and there was quite a sum due him from the estate, for which he seems to have acted as financier. Her re-marriage would introduce a new interest, while her children's rights must be safeguarded in any event. We may almost certainly fix the date of her marriage to William Hawkes as that of the inventory, for on that day, as we shall see in a moment, Hawkes, as her husband, released her interest in the real estate—while they were certainly husband and wife in 8th month, 1688.

The following Court records are of interest, as showing the developments subsequent to the marriage:

At an Orphans' Court, 8- -1688.

"William Haukes being called and making his Appearance was ordered that both himselfe and his Wife Jane doe repaire to ye Register of this County and there give in Security according to law faithfully to discharge the office of guardian to ye Children of his Predisesor George Chandler Diceased." "67

At a Court held at Chester, 10 mo. 1688.

"James Browne made over a Patent by assignment dated ye 9th day of ye 1st moneth 1687/8 unto John and Jane Chandler for a Plantation and Land Conteining 100 acres lying in Chichester.

er Record of the Courts of Chester County, Pa.; p. 138.

William Haukes in ye behalfe of his wife Jane Chandler past over her part of ye aforementioned land unto her Brother in Law John Chandler by assignment of sd Patent dated ye 10th day of ye 7th moneth 1688."68 1--1688.—"William Haukes was Called who making his appearance was ordered to make his application to ye Governr: in persuance of a former order of Court for his taking out letters of Administration in the Behalfe of his $\Pi\diceasors\text{Children George Chandler diceast."} 69

(Although William Hawkes and his wife Jane were directed to "repaire to ye Register of this [Chester] county," there seems to be no record of any activity in that office previous to 1713/14, wills previous to that date having been proved, and letters of administration granted, at Philadelphia. As to the "application to ye Governr," available records make no mention of it, or that letters of administration were ever taken out.)

But to go back a little. In a court case, 2-7-1685, William Hawkes makes his appearance as a witness, indicating that he is a resident of the county. From about this time until his death, his name appears quite frequently on the court records, chiefly as juryman, 1688-91. On 8-6-1691, he was "appointed Supervisor for ye Towneship of Chichester for ye year insuing." In June, 1693, he served on the Grand Inquest; in September of the same year, an execution in his favor was returned against the estate of Robert McKee. At this time, also (1693), he is assessed "for 2 freemen, George Chandler & Edward foord," the former being his step-son, the son of George, Sr., and Jane Chandler. The term freeman indicates one just come of age, and not yet the head of a family.

William Hawkes probably died in the autumn of 1694, his will having been signed in the preceding January, and proved on November 20, 1694. The complete text is as follows:

Know all men whome it may Conserne that on the 30th of the 11th month comly called January  $169\frac{4}{3}$  I William Hawkes in the towneship of Chichester in the County of Chester in Pensiluania being sicke in body & in a good measure of vnderstanding & memory and in regard I am very weak in body & not knowing how it may please the lord to deale

Jacob Chandler Edward ffoard 74

The widow of William Hawkes, in bonding herself faithfully to perform the duties of executrix of his estate, signed her name Jean hawkes—one of three instances of that spelling of her name, two of them being her own signatures.75

Before 10-10-1695, she had become the wife of James Bayliss, for on that day, as his wife Jeane, she gave testimony before the Grand Jury—as we have already seen. In 1701, she is mentioned in the will of Lydia Wade, widow of Robert Wade, of "Essex House," and is then living in Chester Township. 76 In 1713, she is mentioned in the codicil of the will of her son George as "my dear & loving mother Jane Bayliss." 77 month, 1689, James Bayliss lets us have our first view of him, as he stands presented as defendant in "an action of Scandall and Defamation"—in which, however, the plaintiff is non-suited. About three years later, or on 4-14-1692, he buys from Albert Hendrickson, of the town of Chester, a tract of twenty acres, part of the large Hendrickson tract on the south side of Chester Creek, and extending from that stream back to the road laid out from Concord to Chester in 1687. As located today, this 20-acre tract lies partly in Chester Township and partly in the city of Chester, while almost opposite is the borough of Upland, from which a road, crossing the creek, passes through the Bayliss tract to join the main highway. The Philadelphia Division of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad passes through the property. 80

Caleb Pusey, whose house is still standing, across the creek from the Bayliss tract, witnessed this deed, which was acknowledged in court, about three months later, by the grantor. As a period of more than two years was to elapse, before his marriage to Jane (Chandler) Hawkes, James Bayliss had ample time to have built a house on his land, and probably did so, as he and Jane were living in Chester Township in 1701.

The court records show that James Bayliss performed jury duty in 1693-4-5-6. In 1695, he and his wife Jeane were called before the Grand Inquest "to Give in theire Evidences"—but the nature of the case is not stated.<sup>82</sup>

Some time after the beginning of the new century, James Bayliss removed from Chester County, and settled in Moyamensing Township, Philadelphia County—now a part of the city of Philadelphia—where he died. On January 3, 1717, administration was granted to Jane Baylys, of the county of Philadelphia, widow, on the estate of James Baylys, "who lately died intestate." Thomas Chandler, of Chester County—evidently the widow's son—was one of the sureties. The inventory, dated "Myamensing Jenv ye 28th 1718," totals £27-8-10, including, besides household articles, "A Mare & Coult & three heifers" worth £9-10.83

It will be noticed that while the administration bond gives the year of these proceedings as 1717, the inventory is "double-dated," to show that the year was 1717 Old Style, but 1718 New Style. The widow signed the bond Jean Baylis; she was then about 70 years old, and perhaps this is the last record extant of her.

Of John Chandler, brother to George Chandler, Sr., there is little of record. He apparently never married, but lived and died in Chichester Township. By the release given him by William Hawkes, John Chandler became sole possessor of the tract of 100 acres in Chichester. Probably it was in connection with this transaction that he "passed over" to Hawkes, in 1688, a deed dated the seventh of the 11th month of that year, for 60 acres in Chichester. Later, we find George Chandler, Jr., in possession of 60 acres—perhaps the same tract. <sup>85</sup>

The will of John Chandler follows:

Besides the tract of 100 acres which George Chandler, Jr., inherited from his uncle, John Chandler, he acquired part of the adjoining plantation (formerly of Jacob Chandler), amounting to 60 acres, which was surveyed to him September 9, 1729.88

He married Ruth Bezer, <sup>89</sup> of the family into which he had at first been apprenticed. This family, as we have seen, was also of Wiltshire origin. The Bezer tract of 500 acres, in Upper Chichester, lay less than a quarter-mile beyond the creek bounding the Chandler property. <sup>80</sup>

George Chandler died in 1715, leaving a will, in with codicil, the full text of which follows:

Of the sons of George, Sr., and Jane Chandler, the best known seems to have been Thomas. Born in Wiltshire, England, in 1681, he was aged about seven years, on his arrival in Pennsylvania. In 1693/4, his step-father, William Hawkes, calls him "son-in-law Thomas Chandler," that term being synonymous, at the time, with step-son. 92

In 1699, Thomas Chandler was made, with his brother, Swithin, co-executor of the will of his uncle John Chandler (who calls him kinsman), and although he was still under age at the time, the account filed by the executors shows that he acted in that capacity.98

In 1713, his brother George, also, made him executor, and he was duly qualified, 8-5-1715.94

Thomas Chandler served in the Assembly of Pennsylvania, as a Representative from Chester County, 1724-30, incl., and 1736-51, incl. of The break in this otherwise long term of service is accounted for by the statement that he "voted for raising the wages of Assemblymen from four shillings six-pence to five shillings per day." <sup>96</sup> However this may be, there must have been a reversal of sentiment in his favor, as he served fifteen years more, after being restored to the position in 1736.

There are numerous references to Thomas Chandler in the records of the Assembly. At the session beginning October 14, 1730:

"The House being met in Pursuance of their adjournment, Ordered, that Mr. Chandler and Mr. Leech wait upon Governor, and acquaint him, that the House of Representatives being met in pursuance of their Adjournment are ready to proceed upon Business, and desire to know whether he hath any Thing to lay before them."97

Thereafter, he is appointed on several committees to wait on the Governor, for the purpose of informing him, either of the meeting of the House, or of their intention to adjourn.98 In 1737, "Thomas Chandler and William Moore were appointed to attend, with two of the Council, and see the Great Seal of this Province affixed" to the bills assented to by the Governor.99

Several times, Thomas Chandler was appointed on a committee to prepare a draught of an address to the Proprietary, or the Governor, in answer to his message; in 1741, he helped prepare an address to the Proprietary, "on his Departure for Great-Britain," and several months later, one "to the Proprietaries in England." 100

In 1743, he was nominated one of the Trustees of the Loan Office, the House having just voted against disabling said trustees "from being chosen Representatives to serve in the Assembly during their Continuance in that Trust." 101

A minute of 1749 orders that "John Armstrong and Thomas Chandler have Leave to be absent the Remainder of this Sitting, on urgent Affairs." To what this refers, we do not know; but in the following year, it is "Ordered that the following absent Members be sent for to attend the Service of the House"; and among them is Thomas Chandler. At the same session, he "appeared in the House, according to Order," "subscribed the Qualification by Law required of Members of Assembly," and took his seat in the House accordingly. This was probably the result of a discussion then going on between House and Governor as to what constituted a quorum of the House to transact business.

The last mention found of Thomas Chandler's service is that of his certification to membership in the House, October 14 (the almost invariable date for convening that body), 1751. 103

Thomas Chandler settled on the Brandywine, in Birmingham Township, and married Mary Mankin. In his will, proved in 1761, he provides for his wife Mary; leaves his plantation to Thomas, son of his brother William; and makes bequests to his sister Ann Jones, to several children of his brothers George and William, and to other relatives; and makes nephew Thomas Chandler (son of brother William) residuary legatee and executor. 105

 Abstract of Wills and Administrations, Chester County, Pa., Gen. Soc. of Pa.; vol. II, p. 115.

To sum up, the family of George, Sr., and Jane Chandler, all baptized in the parish of Pewsey, Wiltshire, were

- 1. John; born Feb. 13, 1669. Nothing further is known of him, and it is believed that he died in childhood or youth.
- 2. George; born June 14, 1671; died 1715 (see above).
- 3. Swithin; born Sept. 6, 1674; m. Ann ———. He settled on the Brandywine, in Birmingham Township, but subsequently removed to Christiana Hundred, Del.
- 4. Jane; born July 9, 1676; m. Robert Jefferis, of Chichester. They afterwards lived in East Bradford Township, Chester County. She is the Jane Jefferres named in the will of John Chandler (her uncle).
- 5. William; born Dec. 8, 1678; d. 1746; m. Sept. 10, 1712 (Recs. Christ Church, Phila.) Ann Boweter. He finally settled in Londonderry Township. He witnessed the will of his brother George, in 1713, and proved it, in 1715.
- 6. Thomas; born Apr. 2, 1681; d. 1761 (see above).
- 7. Charity; born Apr. 1, 1683. She is mentioned as daughter-in-law Charity Chandler, in the will of her step-father William Hawkes, in 1693/4; but probably died young, as no further record of her appears.
- 8. Ann; her baptismal record has not been found. She was born about 1685. She married first, Samuel Robins, of Philadelphia; and second, George Jones. She is mentioned as "sister Ann Jones" in the will of her brother, Thomas Chandler, in 1753. 106

The absence of vital records of the Chandler family is due to the fact that the earlier generations of the family were not Friends. The earliest record found, in the registers of Concord Monthly Meeting, of a member of the Meeting named Chandler, is in 1724. In England, the family were members of the Protestant Episcopal Church; so it is likely that after settling in Chichester, they attended St. Paul's Church, of Chester; St. Martin's, of Marcus Hook; or St. John's, of Concord—but early records of all these congregations—if records were kept—are lost.<sup>107</sup>

CHANDLERS IN THE REVOLUTION

The Revolutionary rolls preserved in the State Archives of Pennsylvania contain numerous references to the service of persons named Chandler. Some of these may possibly descend from a family which was resident in Salem County, N. J., from the early eighteenth century; but probably most are descendants of George and Jane Chandler.

Christopher Chandler was enrolled in Captain Simonson's Company of Chester County Militia for the year 1783. 108

Joseph and Allen Chandler; privates in Capt. Allen Cunningham's London Grove Company, Chester County Associators and Militia (no date).<sup>109</sup>

George Chandler; private, Capt. Bezaleel Bentley's Company, Chester Co. A. and M. (No date or place given, but possibly East Fallowfield, as both names are found on tax lists of that township for the Revolutionary period.)<sup>110</sup>

CHANDLERS IN THE WAR OF 1812

Alva Chandler; private; served one month and eight days, from Jan. 4, 1814, to Feb. 10, 1814, in Capt. Asa Winters' Company, Maj. John Andrews Second Battalion, Pa. Militia, under the order of Major-General Mead.<sup>121</sup>

Isaac H. Chandler; private; served six months, Oct. 2 to Apr. 2; pay $20; [Capt.] Joseph Wadsworth's Infantry Company, Second Regiment, Second Detachment Pa. Militia, under command of Col. Robert Patterson, in service of United States.<sup>122</sup>

John Chandler; private; served one month six days; Sept. 9 to Oct. 13, 1812; Capt. Nathan Price's Company of "Drafted Militia Doing Duty at Erie by Order of the Governor"; attached to 137th Regiment, 16th Division, Pa. Militia; Lieut-Col. Ralph Marlin commanding. 123

Enoch Chandler; corporal. He was the grandfather of James T. Chandler, who (in 1937) furnishes this information. (Enoch Chandler also served in the Civil War, and died in the service.)

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION OF 1837

"April 14, 1835, an Act of Assembly was passed authorizing a vote to be taken at the next general election on the question of the expediency of a revision of the constitution. The vote being in favor of such revision, an act was passed March 29, 1836, calling a convention, to consist of a number equal to that of the members composing the Senate and House of Representatives, and to be elected Nov. 4, 1836.

"The convention thus called met May 2, 1837, and finally adjourned Feb. 22, 1838, a portion of their sessions being held at Harrisburg and a portion in Philadelphia. The result of their labors was submitted to a vote of the people at the general election held in October, 1838, and the amended constitution, being ratified, went into operation on Jan. 1, 1839.

"The delegates in this convention from Chester County were Thomas S. Bell, senatorial, and William Darlington, Morgan J. Thomas, Matthias Pennypacker, and John Chandler, representatives.

"It was presided over by Hon. John Sergeant, of Philadelphia." 124

ELIZABETH MARGARET CHANDLER

Elizabeth Margaret Chandler, whom George Johnston calls "the first female author who made the emancipation of the colored people the principal theme of her active exertions," was born in the old Chandler mansion, near the State Line, in Birmingham Township, Chester County, December 24, 1807. She was the youngest of the three children of Thomas Chandler and his wife Margaret Evans, of Burlington, N. J. Her mother dying during Elizabeth's infancy, her father removed to Philadelphia, where Elizabeth was educated in Friends' schools. When she was but nine years old, her father died; at about this time, she began to write poetry. She left school at thirteen, and at sixteen began to write for the press, her theme being chiefly the abolition of slavery. She contributed to the Casket and the Genius, becoming, in 1829, head of the "female department" of the latter periodical. During this editorship, she published an "Appeal to the Ladies of the United States" concerning slavery.

Her best-known poem is "The Slave Ship." Among others on the same topic are "The Wife's Lament," "The Recaptured Slave," and "The Slave's Appeal"; while among those of a rural inspiration are mentioned "The Brandywine," "Schuylkill," "The Sunset Hour," and "Summer Morning."

In 1830, Miss Chandler removed with her brother to a farm near the village of Tecumseh, in Lenawee County, in what was then Michigan territory. This farm, which was sixty miles southwest of Detroit, the brother and sister christened "Hazelbank," and here Miss Chandler continued her editorial work, until the illness which ended in her death on November 2, 1834.

Benjamin Lundy, editor of the "Genius of Universal Emancipation," published two volumes of her works: Essays, Philanthropic and Moral, and Poetical Works of Elizabeth Margaret Chandler; with a Memoir of Her Life and Character; both appearing in 1836.<sup>125</sup>

The descent of Elizabeth Margaret Chandler from the immigrants, George and Jane Chandler, is as follows:

George and Jane Chandler, the immigrants of 1687. William Chandler, who married Ann Bowater in 1712. Thomas Chandler, who married Hannah Wilson in 1749. Thomas Chandler, who married Margaret Evans in 1803. Elizabeth Margaret Chandler.

- 13. ISAAC CHANDLER, son of George and Ruth (Bezer) Chandler, died 10-20-1781. He married ELIZABETH JAMES. Very little could be learned of Isaac Chandler or his descendants, except through his daughter Mary. There were probably other children.

CHILD:

- 22. Mary, m. Strode.
- 14. RACHEL CHANDLER, daughter of George Chandler, 2nd, and Ruth (Bezer) Chandler, his wife, was born in Chester County, Pa., about 1710. She married February 23, 1729, JACOB HOLLINGSWORTH, son of Thomas and Grace (Cook) Hollingsworth, of Rockland Manor, New Castle County, Delaware, and grandson of Valentine Hollingsworth, the emigrant ancestor of this family, who with his wife Ann and children came to America in 1682. Jacob Hollingsworth was a sea captain, sailing from Wilmington. He was lost at sea with his vessel.

THIRD GENERATION

VALENTINE HOLLINGSWORTH, the immigrant ancestor of the American family of Hollingsworth, was a member of the Society of Friends, and many of his descendants adhere to that faith. He was the son of Henry Hollingsworth of Belleneskcraunel, Parish of Legoe, County Armagh, Ireland, and of Catharine, his wife.

In 1682, Valentine Hollingsworth, Sr., and his family accompanied by several others and by John Musgrave, an indented servant, sailed from Belfast for the Delaware River, arriving a few months after William Penn's arrival in the good ship "Welcome." He settled on a large plantation of nearly a thousand acres on Shelpot Creek in Brandywine Hundred, New Castle (now Delaware) Co., about five miles northeast of the present city of Wilmington, and not far from Point Christian, or Christiana of the Swedes. After the monthly meeting was established, the sessions were mainly held at Hollingsworth's house. In 1687, he granted "unto friends for a burying place half an acre of land for ye purpose, there being already friends buried in the spot." The section in question soon became known as the "New Worke" or "New Ark," now the thriving town of Newark, Delaware.

That Valentine Hollingsworth was a man of extraordinary ability and influence is demonstrated by the fact that almost immediately after his arrival in the new world, he was called upon to hold office and participate in public affairs. He was a member of the first Assembly of the Province of Pennsylvania, shortly after William Penn's advent, that of 1682-3; also of the Grand Inquest empaneled October 25, 1683, to consider the famous case of Charles Pickering and others charged with counterfeiting. He served in several subsequent sessions of Assembly, those of 1687, 1688, 1695 and 1700, from New Castle County, and was a Justice of the Peace from the same county. He was also a signer of Penn's Great Charter and a member of the Provincial Council. He died about 1711. His second wife, Ann Calvert, died August 17, 1697. Both were buried in the old burial ground at Newark, Delaware, which he had presented to the Friends in 1687.

THIRD GENERATION

Jacob Hollingsworth and wife Rachel (Chandler) Hollingsworth had children:

- 23. i. Elias, b. about 1730; m. 10-25-1753 at the Okerson Mtg., Delaware, Susanna Pierce, daughter of Gaines Pierce of Concord, Chester Co., Pa.
- 24. ii. David.
- 25. iii. Ruth.
- 26. iv. Jacob.
- 27. v. Zebedee.
- 28. vi. Jeptha.
- 29. vii. Rachel.

FOURTH GENERATION

15. ISAAC CHANDLER, son of George Chandler, 3rd, and wife Esther (Taylor), was born in Chester County, Pa., October 30, 1732, and died April 9, 1802. He married March 2, 1757, ESTHER CHANDLER, his cousin, daughter of Swithin and Ann (Wilson) Chandler. She was born July 1, 1740, and died August 6, 1818. They settled about one mile east of Hockessin Meeting House in Delaware.

56. vi. Elizabeth, d. 9-8-1845; m. Daniel Bailey.

19. STEPHEN CHANDLER, son of George Chandler, 3rd, and wife Esther (Taylor), was born in Chester County, Pa., about 1740-45; died at Patterson Creek in Hampshire County, Virginia. He married about 1770 in Chester County, Pa., ELIZ-ABETH McMINN, daughter of Robert and Sarah (Harlan) McMinn, of Chester County, Pa., later of Maryland. She was born in Chester County, July 26, 1749, died in Hampshire County, Va., July 26, 1824. They settled first in Chester County, then moved to Hampshire County, Va., about 1785, where he owned one hundred acres of land. He was a millwright and miller by trade. He leaned toward his early teaching in the Society of Friends. His wife Elizabeth was said to be a Methodist, and was always finding time to visit the sick and poor. She was known for her kindness and charity, and was loved and honored by all who knew her. Stephen and Elizabeth are lying side by side in what might have been known as the Hollenback

Graveyard, near the old stone house of the Hollenbacks on Patterson Creek in Hampshire County, Va.

In the possession of one of her descendants is an old needle-worked pocketbook for holding papers, made by Elizabeth McMinn. It has her initials E.M. and date 1769. This was given to her son Ellis Chandler, and handed down. When this was written it was proudly held by Mr. Charles P. Chandler of Macomb, Ill. He also had an old sampler made by Sarah Harlan, mother of Elizabeth McMinn, when she was only twelve years old. Sarah Harlan (McMinn) was the daughter of William Harlan and great-granddaughter of George Harlan and wife Elizabeth, who came to America in 1687.

Children of Stephen and Elizabeth (McMinn) Chandler:

- 57. i. Ellis, b. 1-5-1772; d. 5-11-1850; m. about 1795, Deborah Barton.
- 58. ii. Rachel, b. 2-14-1773; d. 3-12-1843; m. about 1794, George Rinehart.
- 59. iii. Sarah, b. 1780; d. 4-18-1851.
- 60. iv. Elizabeth, b. 1784; d. 7-8-1865, unm. These children were all born in Chester County.
- 20. JOSEPH CHANDLER, son of John and Elizabeth Chandler, was born about 1737; died October 27, 1793. He married, October 24, 1760, by Andrew Borell, in Old Swedes Church, Wilmington, Delaware, ELIZABETH FOREMAN, daughter of John Foreman. She died June 3, 1772. Resided in Brandywine Hundred, Delaware.

- 61. i. John, b. 5-2-1761.
- 62. ii. Kezia, b. 9-24-1762.
- 63. iii. Rachel, b. 12-8-1763.
- 64. iv. Susanna, b. 4-3-1765; married about 1785, Thomas Smith.
- 65. v. Elizabeth, b. 10-30-1766.
- 66. vi. Joseph, b. 6-10-1768.
- 67. vii. James, b. 11-13-1770.
- 21. AMOR CHANDLER, son of John and Elizabeth Chandler, was born February 16, 1739; died October 19, 1813. He was married April 23, 1763, by Andrew Borell, Rector of Christiana, Delaware, to ELIZABETH HARLAN, born June 6, 1743; died October 6, 1823. She was the daughter of George Harlan and his wife Elizabeth Hope. This again brings another of Chester County's old families into the Chandlers.

GEORGE HARLAN, farmer, was born about the year 1716, in Kennet Township, Chester County, Pa., and died there 2 mo. 1749; buried there in Friends' Burying Grounds, at "Old" Kennet Meeting House. He married 3 mo. 27, 1736, at "Old" Kennet Meeting, ELIZABETH HOPE, born 3 mo. 4, 1719, in Kennet Township, a daughter of John Hope, born in Wiltshire, England, and Elizabeth Hobson, of Ireland.

George Harlan was the son of AARON HARLAN, b. 10-24-1685, in the Parish of Donnahlong, County Down, Province of Ulster, Ireland. Aaron Harlan was but two years old when his parents reached the shores of the new world, and settled in the wilderness of the Colony of William Penn. He died 9 mo. 1732 at "Old" Kennet. He married at Newark Mtg., New Castle County, Del., in 1713, SARAH HEALD, born 5 mo. 19, 1692, in Mobberly, Cheshire, Old England, died 12 mo. 1747/8, in Kennet Township, the daughter of Samuel and Mary (Bancroft) Heald of Mobberly, Cheshire, England.

Aaron Harlan was the son of GEORGE HARLAN, the Pioneer Ancestor of the American family. George Harlan (d), yeoman, "ye sone of JAMES HARLAND of Monkwearmouth, was Baptized at the Monastery of Monkwearmouth in Oald England, ye 11th Day of First Month 1650." He was born "Nigh Durham in Bishoprick, England," and remained there until he reached manhood, when, in company with his brother and others he crossed into Ireland and located in the County of Down. While residing there he married 9 mo. 17, 1678, ELIZABETH DUCK. He brought his family to America in 1687, and settled in Chester County, Pa. He died in 5 mo. (July), 1714, and was buried beside his "deare wife in the new burying grounds of Alfonsus Kirk's land," which was afterwards, and is yet, Center Meeting Burying Grounds.

JAMES HARLAND, the father of George, was a member of the Episcopal Church, was born about the year 1625 in the "Bishoprick, nigh Durham, England," and is the earliest paternal ancestor known to the family in America bearing the name Harlan. He lived and died an Englishman, and was buried upon English soil, no one knows today where. Tradition says his father's name was William.

After coming to America, George and his brother, Michael Harland, dropped the final "d" and the name is almost universally spelled Harlan.

Amor Chandler and wife Elizabeth (Harlan) had children:

- i. Sarah, b. 7-24-1764; d. 8-7-1896, unm.
- ii. Jehu Harlan, b. 8-17-1766; d. 1-10-1842; m. about 1792, 69. Lydia Jefferis.
- iii. Rachel, b. 4-15-1769; d. 7-9-1838, unm.

30. SPENCER CHANDLER, son of Isaac Chandler and Esther (Chandler), was born January 23, 1758; died August 26, 1841. He married about 1782, RUTH (Tate) DIXON, widow of Philip, and daughter of William and Martha Tate. She was born January 30, 1759, and died May 13, 1828. Spencer Chandler settled in Mill Creek Hundred, Delaware. Both are buried in the Hockessin Meeting grounds.

CHILDREN:

78. i. Philip, b. 8-6-1784; d. 7-30-1842; m. Hannah Dixon.

79. ii. Esther, b. 11-5-1789; d. 8-19-1791.

80. iii. Isaac, b. 5-8-1793; d. 8-19-1794.

31. SUSANNA CHANDLER, daughter of Isaac Chandler and Esther (Chandler), was born 10 mo. 10, 1760; died 5 mo. 12, 1849. She was married 3 mo. 22, 1781, at the Kennet Meeting to ABRAHAM DARLINGTON, b. 8 mo. 28, 1757; d. 2 mo. 14, 1844, the son of Thomas Darlington and Hannah (Brinton), his wife, of East Bradford, Chester County, Pa.

This marriage brought three of the oldest families of Chester together. Abraham Darlington was the grandson of Abraham Darlington, who was born in England about 1690, the son of Job and Mary Darlington, of Darnhall, a small township in Cheshire, about thirty-six miles from Liverpool. He and his brother John Darlington came to America about 1711 and settled in Chester County, Pa.

On 28th of 11th mo. (Jan. O.S.), 1711, Abraham Darlington and Deborah Carter, declared their intentions of marriage, which were made in the Chester Monthly Meeting of Friends. It was later reported to have been accomplished. Deborah Carter, his wife, was the daughter of Joseph Carter, who came from Cheshire, England, in 1690, and settled in Edgmont, Chester (now Delaware) County. It is thought her death occurred about 1715. There does not seem to have been any children born to this marriage.

On the 24th of 7th mo. 1716, Abraham Darlington requested a Certificate from the Chester Meeting to that of Middletown, Bucks County, in order to proceed in marriage with ELIZABETH HILLBORN, daughter of Thomas and Elizabeth Hillborn. They declared their intention of marriage in the Middletown Meeting the 10 mo. 6, 1716, and on the 11th mo. 3, 1716, the marriage was reported as having been accomplished. Abraham Darlington, the head of this branch of the American family, died 2 mo. 9, 1776, aged 85 years, 11 months, lacking two days. Elizabeth (Hillborn) Darlington, his wife, died 12 mo. 28, 1771.

Abraham and Elizabeth have thousands of descendants. Anyone wishing further information can find a full history in the Darlington Family 1580-1900, by Stephen P. Darlington.

On the maternal line, Abraham Darlington was the son of HANNAH BRINTON, who was the daughter of Edward and Hannah (Peirce) Brinton, and the great-granddaughter of William Brinton, who came to Pennsylvania from England in 1684, and settled in Chester County. His wife was Ann Bagley. They were the Pioneer Ancestors of the Brinton Family of Pennsylvania. They have thousands of descendants. Anyone interested in this branch of the family can get the full history in The Brinton Genealogy, by J. W. Schoonover.

- 33. GEORGE CHANDLER, son of Isaac Chandler and Esther (Chandler), his wife, was born 10-21-1764 (probably in Chester County); died September 7, 1823, near Flushing, Belmont County, Ohio. He married MARY HOLLINGS-WORTH, born 8-29-1760, on the Brandywine, in Chester County, Pa., died 2-21-1855, near Flushing, Belmont County, Ohio, the daughter of Thomas Hollingsworth and Jane (Smith) his wife. They were either married in Fayette County, Pa., or removed there soon after, and they lived there until their family were grown, when they removed to Flushing, Ohio, which was about 1821, as George Chandler lived only a few years after going to Ohio.

They had the following children, all born in Merrittstown, Fayette County, Pa.:

93. i. George, d. y.

94. ii. Isaac H., b. 1-11-1794; d. 4-14-1856; m. 2 mo. 19, 1824, Alice Armstrong, of Greene Co., Pa.

97. v. Ann, b. 12-12-1799; d. 3-18-1853(5); m. (1) 1-24-1822, Barnet Bethel; m. (2) 6-11-1832, James Smith.

34. JONATHAN CHANDLER, son of Isaac Chandler and Esther (Chandler), his wife, was born 21st, 2 mo. 1767, in Chester County, Pa.; died 16-12th mo. 1849, in Tuscarawas County, Ohio. He married 28th, 9th mo. 1791, in Fayette County, Pa., MARTHA COULSON, born in Louden County, Va., 23rd, 7th mo. 1768; died 11th, 3rd mo. 1862, in Tuscarawas County, Ohio. She was the daughter of Samuel Coulson and wife, Tamor (Alen), of Fayette County, Pa.

Jonathan Chandler, at the proper age, apprenticed himself to his uncle James Wilson, to learn the trade of weaving. At the age of twenty-one, he came with his uncle Enoch Chandler, west of the mountains and settled in Fayette County and worked at his trade. When about twenty-five years old, he married and to this union was born eleven children.

In 1820, he moved to Belmont County, Ohio, where he bought a farm and lived thereon until 1837, when he moved to Tuscarawas County, Ohio, where he remained until his death in 1849. His wife survived him for some years. He was a weaver by trade, but preferred farming and devoted most of his life to this occupation. He never joined any church or meeting, but believed in the doctrine of the Quakers. He used the plain language, wore the plain clothes, was a Whig in politics, and was known as an honest, upright man in all his dealings with his fellow men.

JOSEPH BRINTON was a descendant of William Brinton, another early settler in Chester County.

WILLIAM BRINTON, the Pioneer Ancestor of the family in America, was the son of Thomas Brinton and Ann Biddle of Biddulph. He was married in 1659, in England, to Ann Bagley, daughter of Edward Bagley of Sedgeley.

In the spring of 1684, William Brinton embarked with his wife and son William for Penn's Colony, leaving his three daughters in England. The vessel had a prosperous passage, and came to anchor in the Delaware River at a point known as Grubb's Landing, now in Brandywine Hundred, New Castle County, Delaware. There was already a settlement of Swedes at this point, and most of the passengers remained there. William Brinton advanced boldly into the broken forest which then covered the country, seeking a location and quality of soil which would suit him for a permanent residence. This he found twelve miles back from the river, on the Indian trail which then led from the forks of the Brandywine to the Delaware.

Here he erected a temporary dwelling and here they spent their first winter. The weather was cold and severe; he had no white neighbors, no provisions, and the family suffered greatly and would have starved had it not been for the kindness of the Indians, who supplied them with game.

Thomas and Mary (Brinton) Darlington had the following children:

- 245. i. Brinton, b. 12-15-1809; d. 4-2-1879; m. 12-27-1827, Esther (Peirce) Harvey; m. (2) 10-22-1868, Marcia G. Rowland.

84. BENEDICT DARLINGTON, son of Abraham and Susanna (Chandler) Darlington, was born 9-22-1786, in Westtown Township, died 7-17-1864, in Londonderry, Chester County, Pa. He married 11-1-1807, at Birmingham, RACHEL OTLEY, born 3-27-1788; died 12-14-1861, daughter of Abel Otley and wife Elizabeth (Darlington), of West Chester, Pa.

Soon after their marriage they settled on a small farm of 40 acres in Westtown Township, on the road leading from West Chester to Wilmington, Del., about 1/3 mile north of "Darlington's Corner," then and long after known as "Parker's Woods."

He was a carpenter by trade. About 1810 to 1812, he began manufacturing "8-day" wooden clocks. Jonathan N. Hatch, Russell Vibber and Thomas De Wolf (all of Connecticut) made and fitted up the wooden works (or movements) and he made the cases, which were about seven feet in height, and peddled them around the country, one of which remained in his possession at the time of his death, and which came into the possession of his son Abel Darlington of Chatham, Chester County, Pa., and who in turn gave it to his daughter Susan Peirce of Philadelphia, and in 1887 this clock was in good condition and keeping excellent time.

Benedict Darlington about 1814-15 began the weaving of heavy cotton goods, with about a dozen looms, and also to keep a store, both of which he continued until 1841, but at this time he suffered heavy losses, through his having endorsed heavily for Jonathan N. Hatch (whose cotton factory on Crumb Creek, Delaware County, was burned and not sufficiently insured) and he was obliged to leave the old homestead and move to Sassafras Neck, Cecil County, Md., where he remained for five years. He then returned to Chester County.

His early education was quite limited, obtained at the common country schools, notwithstanding which he subsequently acquired such an amount of information and intelligence as is rarely obtained by anyone under similar circumstances, having a very active and inquiring mind and unusually retentive memory. He and his wife both were members of the Society of Friends.

ROBERTS, b. 11-27-1784, in or near Quakertown, Bucks County, Pa., died 8-29-1822, in Charlestown, Chester County, Pa., son of Edward Roberts and Mary (Burson) his wife. This marriage connects one of the first families of Bucks County.

EDWARD ROBERTS was the son of John and Martha (Roberts) Roberts and the grandson of Thomas Roberts, and his wife Alice, the Pioneer Ancestor of the family.

THOMAS ROBERTS, the founder of the Roberts family of Milford Township in Manor of Richland, is supposed to have come from Wales. They arrived in Philadelphia about the year of 1715-20. They purchased a horse and cart and a few of the absolute necessities of life and proceeded to their new home beyond the lines of lands then taken up by other settlers. They traveled about thirty-five miles north of Philadelphia into what is now Milford Township, Bucks County, locating in a beautiful valley covered with luxuriant grass which they thought particularly adapted for grazing. This little valley was watered by a small stream which they named Butter Creek, a name which it still bears. Here they camped for a time beside a large rock, and proceeded to build themselves a log house, in which they resided until about 1740 or 1742. About this date they erected a stone house.

James B. and Esther (Darlington) Roberts resided on a farm near Charlestown village. He was a farmer and a member of the legislature.

He married February 7, 1850, in Philadelphia, LUCY CYNTHIA LEWIS, born in Lancaster County, Pa., daughter of William Lewis and Catharine Wittmer, of Lancaster, Pa. He settled in 1850 in San Francisco, California, and was living there in 1887, where he had been a builder and merchant. He was a member of the Meeting in early life, but in young manhood joined the Presbyterian Church, in which he served as an Elder for thirty years.

No issue.

272. ALBERT HOOPES, son of Thomas Hoopes and Eliza (Darlington), was born 10 mo. 7, 1818, at West Goshen, Chester County, Pa.; married 6 mo. 8, 1848, in the Friends Meeting, Gunpowder, Baltimore County, Md., DEBORAH PRICE, born 3 mo. 2, 1825, in Gunpowder, the daughter of Mordecai Price and Mary (Dillon), his wife, of Gunpowder, Md.

After their marriage, Albert Hoopes settled on a farm belonging to his father in West Goshen, Chester County, Pa., where he remained until 1864, when he removed to Mill Green, Harford County, Md., where he was residing in 1887.

The HOOPES FAMILY is one of the early families of Bucks and Chester Counties. The Pioneer Ancestor of the family, JOSHUA HOOPES, came to Pennsylvania from Yorkshire, England, as appears on the list of early arrivals given in the Bucks County Records thus:

"Joshua Hoopes, of Skelton, in Cleveland, Yorkshire, England (Yeoman), and his wife Isabel, with their children Daniel, Margaret and Christian, came in the ship Providence, and arrived in the River Delaware the 10th day of 9th mo. 1683."

They located in Bucks County, Pa. In 1696, Daniel married Jane Warrilow, of Chester County, to which place he removed. Daniel and Jane had a family of seventeen children. They nearly all married, had numerous descendants, and it is believed all bearing the name of Hoopes in Chester County and adjacent parts, are lineal descendants of this family.

Children of Albert Hoopes and Deborah (Price) Hoopes.

273. DARLINGTON HOOPES, son of Thomas Hoopes and wife Eliza (Darlington), was born 5 mo. 11, 1820, at West Goshen, Chester County, Pa. He married 5 mo. 5, 1840, at the home of her parents, RACHEL TRIMBLE, the daughter of Joseph Trimble and wife, Ann Cheyney.

Rachel Trimble was born 1 mo. 4, 1825, in Harford County, Md., died 5 mo. 5, 1846, buried at Forest Hill Meeting, Md. Joseph Trimble, her father, died 3 mo. 17, 1870, at the home of his daughter Rachel and husband Darlington Hoopes; her mother, Ann (Cheyney) Trimble, died 2 mo. 31, 1870.

Rachel (Trimble) Hoopes, through her maternal side, cantrace her line back to John Cheyney, an early settler in Chester County, and to Francis Hickman.

JOHN CHEYNEY, the Pioneer Ancestor of the family of Cheyney, was a resident in Middletown Township as early *as 1715, but the exact date of his arrival or the ship he came on we do not know. He died in the year of 1722. He had two sons, John and Thomas. The sons soon after this returned to England, presumably to their native parish, and in 1724, John Bellere, of London, merchant, conveyed to John Cheyney and Thomas Cheyney, late of Middletown, in the County of Chester, in Pennsylvania, but now of Upper Lamborne, in the parish of Chipping Lamborne, County of Berks, England, 1500 acres of land in Pennsylvania, for £360: This land had been purchased from William Penn. They returned to Pennsylvania and occupied the lands.

Thomas Cheyney married Elizabeth Hickman, daughter of Benjamin and Ann (Buffington) Hickman, of Westtown, Chester County, Pa., and John Cheyney, Jr., married Ann Hickman, daughter of Benjamin and Ann Hickman.

Darlington and Rachel Hoopes were living at Hickory, Harford County, Md., in 1887.

274. EDMUND HOOPES, son of Thomas Hoopes and Eliza (Darlington), was born 1 mo. 31, 1822, at West Goshen, Chester County, Pa.; died 9 mo. 14, 1863, in Harford County, Md., buried in Forrest Hill. He married 12 mo. 6, 1849, in Harford County, Md., PHEBE TRIMBLE, born 2 mo. 13, 1823, daughter of Joseph Trimble and Ann (Cheyney), his wife, of Harford County, Md.

Edmund Hoopes was educated at West Chester and elsewhere. He settled in Harford County, Md., immediately after marriage. He was a farmer by occupation. He owned the farm which he tilled, also a Grist Mill. He was a member of the Society of Friends, but during the Civil War he was a staunch Union man. He entered the Service of his Country as Deputy Provost Marshal, in the discharge of which duties he contracted the disease which terminated his useful life.

Edmund Hoopes and Phebe (Trimble) had children:

759. i. Elizabeth, b. 7-15-1851; d. 7-17-1851.

760. ii. Caroline, b. 5-15-1852; m. 11-1-1877, Rev. James Arthur Singmaster.

She married at the home of her parents, 4 mo. 22, 1846, HOLLIDAY JACKSON, born 12 mo. 27, 1817, at Sharon, near Darby, Delaware County, Pa. He died 8 mo. 6, 1887, in West Chester, Pa.

Holliday Jackson early evinced a taste for educational matters and about 1841 he taught the school connected with the High Street Friends' Meeting. He was also an instructor for a time in Benjamin Price's then well-known boarding school. Afterwards he taught in the Salem Friends' School until his services were sought by the Friends' Institute of New York. He was particularly fitted for work in the school room, being himself an enthusiastic student and efficient instructor, and it was only because his health would not endure the confinement that he relinguished the occupation and became a farmer. His educational pursuits were continued greatly to his own gratification and the profit of his friends. His attainments in the literary and scientific world were of no ordinary character. In his youthful days his love was especially for mathematics and astronomy, but later botany in its various branches claimed more of his attention. He was a member of the Microscopical Society, and author of a history of the Jackson family, which he prepared with much care and labor, and among other matters that came from his ready pen were a number of poems. He was always an earnest, consistent member of the Society of Friends, in which he was entrusted with many responsible positions.

He was born 13 May, 1830; died 10-15-1889, near West Grove, Pa.

Cornelius C. Hallowell was born in the old Hallowell homestead where he resided at the time of his death. His father, Joseph, was the son of John and Lydia Hallowell, and his mother, Esther (Conard), was the daughter of Cornelius and Susanna Conard of Chester County, Pa. His early life was spent on the farm and attending the public school. His habits of industry and application were such that while yet a young man he had fitted himself for the vocation of teacher, and for several years was successfully engaged in that work. But circumstances brought him back to the old home farm, and since that time he has been known as one of the most careful and successful farmers in Chester County. His interest in educational affairs never flagged, and until his death he was one of the most active workers in the interests of the public schools of the county, having been a director almost continuously since giving up teaching. His life was conspicuous for its simplicity, earnest effort, and unflagging energy.

539. JOSEPH BARTON CHANDLER, son of Stephen Chandler and Lavisa (Fort), of Scioto County, Ohio, was born October 21, 1830; married October 19, 1865, at Darlington, Lafayette County, Wisconsin, HELEN PLATT WOOD, daughter of Rev. Henry Wood and wife Maria (Torrey), of Darlington, Wisconsin. She was born September 2, 1833, in St. Albans, Vermont.

After the death of his father, his mother took her young children, Joseph, her only son and about twelve years old, and his three young sisters and moved from Scioto County, Ohio, to Marshall County, Ill., whither her parents had preceded her, bought a lot in Lacon and built and maintained a homestead there up to the time of her death.

Joseph Barton Chandler was educated in Rock River Seminary, Mount Morris, Ill. He was active in the affairs of his community. He was editor of the Lacon Herald and Times, and, in 1854, he was appointed to a clerkship in the Treasury Department in Washington, D. C. In 1858, he resigned this position to become the private secretary and clerk of the U.S. Senate Committee on Territories, and was in Washington each session of Congress up to the first year of the Civil War, when he was commissioned by Governor Yates as First Lieutenant of Illinois Infantry, and assigned to and served as aid-de-camp on the staff of Major-General Todd, who having been elected to a seat in Congress resigned his military position prior to the close of the war. Army life was never in accord with his inclinations or general aims, and not deeming it a duty to remain in the field, he also resigned, and afterward was appointed U.S. Treasury Agent to regulate trade, and for a while again served the Government in the South. After the acceptance of his resignation from the last-named office, he returned North, with the idea of again returning to the editorial profession, which he did, and in 1887 he was residing in Chicago, Ill., and was then putting his affairs in order to return and take things a little quieter for the remainder of his life.

No children.

573. ELIZABETH TRIPPE CHANDLER, daughter of George and Deborah (Trippe) Chandler, of Moorestown, N. J., was born at Chandler's Hollow, Delaware; died 12 mo.-26-1848, in New Orleans, Louisiana. She married in Philadelphia, Pa., 7 mo.-24-1839, MIFFLIN PENROSE DENNEY, born 11-27-1814, at Christiana, Lancaster County, Pa.; died at sea and buried in the Gulf of Mexico, 6 mo.-6-1849, son of Samuel Lewis and Edith (DuBree) Denney, of Lancaster County, Pa.

Mifflin Penrose Denney learned the trade of machinist with Matthias W. Baldwin, the founder of the Baldwin Locomotive Works. In a letter to his sister Tacy, dated December 20, 1835, he gives his address as Philadelphia, Pa., care of M. W. Baldwin. Mifflin afterward worked in the Philadelphia Mint, and with other young men was sent to the New Orleans Mint to coin a lot of bullion. They sailed from Philadelphia on the Barque Dromo on November 20, 1837, and landed in New Orleans December 12. After the work was completed, Mifflin returned to Philadelphia, and later went into the iron business at Coatesville, Pa., where he manufactured engines. After this business was given up, he went to New Orleans as superintendent of the Mint there. Family tradition tells that while in New Orleans, he made a design for a new quarter of a dollar, for which he received from the Government a gold watch suitably engraved, and the sum of Five Hundred Dollars.

Elizabeth, his wife, neé Chandler, died in New Orleans of cholera, December 26, 1848, and was buried there. Soon after the death of his wife, Mifflin was sent by the Government to

San Francisco to establish a Mint there. Before starting on his journey, he placed the two older children in a boarding school. At that time, it was necessary to sail around Cape Horn and up the west coast to California. At the Isthmus of Panama, the sailing vessel was becalmed for weeks, and Mifflin contracted ship's fever. He took ship for New Orleans, but died at sea. His personal effects, including the watch received from the Government, never reached his family.

Samuel L. Denney had considerable trouble before his grand-children were permitted to be sent north. The Mayor of Philadelphia had to send a message to the Mayor of New Orleans, asking their release. Many precautions had to be taken, in those days, because of the existence of slavery. The two little boys, Gilbert and Henry had died, so Emeline and Barclay, aged nine and seven, respectively, made the journey—a long and tedious one—in care of the captain of the Alleghania. Their aunt met them in Philadelphia, but the captain himself went to Christiana, Lancaster County, to see that the two children had really reached their destination. This was in 1849.

Later, Emeline lived with her grandfather, George Chandler, and afterward with her great aunt, Lydia Chandler Rigby, from whom she learned considerable of the traditions and the history of the Chandler family. Beautiful miniatures of Mifflin Penrose and Elizabeth Chandler Denney are in the possession of a member of the family. These were painted by Percy Cooper prior to their marriage in 1839.

- 574. BENJAMIN FRANKLIN CHANDLER, son of Jonathan Chandler and Mary (Griffith), of Harrisburg, Pa., was born July 17, 1820, in Sadsburyville, Chester County, Pa. He went with his parents about 1828, to Harrisburg, where he died April 29, 1886, and is buried there. He married, December 23, 1855, CATHARINE SEES, daughter of David and Ann Fell (Edwards) of Harrisburg, Pa. She was born there August 11, 1830.

Benjamin F. Chandler received his early education in Chester County, going with his parents to Harrisburg in 1828. As a young man he traveled extensively through the west and south and for a time resided in St. Louis, New Orleans, and other cities. He was appointed to the office of Secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in 1846 under the administration of Governor Francis R. Shunk. His life records need no better testimonial than his retention at this post without the use of political influence through all phases of political change from the administration of Governor Shunk down to his death. A gentleman, who was for many years a co-worker with Mr. Chandler in the State Department, wrote thus of him:

"In his death this town has not only lost one of her good citizens, but the Commonwealth a true and tried official. Since the time when James Kimble was Deputy Secretary of the Commonwealth, no one has been in the service of the Commonwealth for a greater number of years than he. For over forty years he was connected with the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and during that time he formed an extensive acquaintance, made steadfast friends, and won the respect of his associates and all who had business with the Department. He was known far and wide as a competent, courteous and obliging official. He made it his special duty to master the details of the business of the Executive Department, and everyone from the Governor down to the clerks associated in the same office felt himself indebted to him for good counsel and advice. When doubts arose in the transaction of any special business, it was he who was sought and with his help a precedent found to govern the case in hand. His quiet and unassuming manner and smooth and even temper, forbade him speaking ill of anyone."

995. JOHN ROSS CHANDLER, son of Philemma Chandler and Rachel M. (Austin), his wife, was born August 13, 1863, in Wilmington, Del. He married February 23, 1887, in Philadelphia, Pa., MARY ELLEN GOULD, daughter of David Gould, of Easton, Pa. She was born May 5, 1867, in Washington, D. C. They were living in Philadelphia in 1887.

996. ESTELLE CHANDLER, daughter of Philemma Chandler and Rachel M. (Austin), was born 3-24-1866; living in 1937. She married ARTHUR A. WILMOT, born 4-24-1866; living in 1937. He is a cousin of David Wilmot of the Wilmot Proviso fame, and a member of the Wilmot family who settled in Connecticut early.

Estelle (Chandler) Wilmot and her husband never had any children, but being great lovers of children, they adopted a little orphan girl and raised her as their own. One can always find children in their home, Estelle Wilmot being one of those loving women who never was a mother, but who mothered many.

997. DR. SWITHIN CHANDLER, son of Philemma and Rachel M. (Austin) Chandler, was born May 13, 1870, at Centerville, Delaware. He practices medicine and surgery in the city of Philadelphia, having a suite of offices at 803-4-5 Central Medical Building, n. e. corner of 18th & Chestnut Streets, and has affiliated with him a Pathologist and Roentgenologist. He is visited by people from throughout the United States for diagnosis and is called in consultation in various states in the Union for diagnosis and surgery.

He graduated from the Wilmington High School, having been selected as Valedictorian of his class. At the age of 19, he graduated from the University of Pennsylvania Medical School (in the famous class of 1892).

He started to practice medicine in the city of Wilmington, Del. At the age of twenty-one, he was elected Chief Surgeon at the Delaware Hospital. The same year he was appointed surgeon to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad and in five years subsequently was honored with the presidency of the Association of Railway Surgeons.

In 1901 and 1902, Dr. Chandler took post-graduate courses in Vienna, Austria; Berlin, Germany; Paris, France; and London, England, besides studying part-time periods in Edinburgh, Scotland, and Dublin, Ireland. He then returned to America and opened an office on Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. The same year he was elected Chief Surgeon to the Garretson Hospital, which subsequently was taken over by Temple University, where he was made Associate Professor and so remained until 1920, when he resigned from the Institution and devoted himself to his private practice.

While abroad, he studied under the great Pick, the greatest Pathologist of his age, and Knauer in Vienna, one of the best Diagnosticians of his time.

Although teaching and performing surgery and writing extensively in the journals along surgical lines, he has always continued in the diagnostic field and has written considerably on this subject. He also has to his credit several instruments which he devised, several discoveries, anatomical and several operations which are performed today by leading men of the country.

Dr. Chandler was on the Board of Governors at the Medical Club for eleven years; he was Chairman on one of the committees to entertain the German Scientists while they were visiting here about fifteen years ago and is President of the Chandler Family Association. He has been a member of the Southern Club and one of the governors; the Wilmington Cricket Club (now known as the Wilmington Country Club); the Wilmington Club and the Hamilton Debating Club. He is also a member of the Philadelphia County Medical Society; the Pennsylvania State Medical Society; the American Medical Association; the Medical Club; the Physicians' Motor Club, and various other social and medical societies.

Dr. Chandler is still devoting his time to his private practice as Diagnostician and Surgeon. He, like many of the men of the Chandlers, loves the great out-doors, and at the end of a busy day he hurries off to his country home near Strafford, where he can enjoy all the pleasures of a country gentleman.

Dr. Chandler is the President of the Chandler Family Society and much of the success of the Reunions is due to his untiring efforts.

Dr. Chandler married ELIZABETH DICKINSON.

1029. IRVING A. CHANDLER, son of Newton and Mary Elizabeth (Clark) Chandler, of Wilmington, Del., was born Thanksgiving Day, November 27, 1873, at the old home at the flour and grist mill owned by his grandfather, Abram Chandler, and operated by his father, Newton Chandler, located on the West Branch of Red Clay Creek, in Pennsylvania, two miles due south of Kennett Square. Soon after his parents moved to Milltown, Delaware, about seven miles westerly from Wilmington, Del., to another flour and grist mill, and saw mill on Mill Creek, also owned by his grandfather and operated by his father, where they lived till June, 1885, and until he was twelve and a half years old. In June, 1885, his father was appointed to the Superintendency of the Ferris Reform School (later named Ferris Industrial School) about two miles west of Wilmington, where they lived till November 15, 1888, at which time they moved to Wilmington, where his father went into partnership with an old friend named Thomas Sheward, forming the firm of Sheward and Chandler, dealing in flour, feed, hay and coal.

Irving A. Chandler was educated during the first six years of school life in the country district school, about a mile from Milltown; then for the next three years (while living at the Ferris Industrial School), at the Laura O. Harkness Private School in Wilmington. After moving to Wilmington, he entered, in September, 1889, the Wilmington High School and graduated in 1892.

He worked as a clerk for about a year and three months for the Delaware Chemical Company in Wilmington, then in September, 1893, he entered the Towne Scientific School of the University of Pennsylvania and there took the four-year course in mechanical engineering, graduating in June, 1897, with the degree of Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering.

His first position was as a draughtsman with the Edgemoor Bridge Works in Edgemoor, Delaware. In December, 1897, he left there to accept an offer from the Bell Telephone Company of Philadelphia in their maintenance department, but resigned to accept on August 1, 1898, an offer of a position with the engineering firm of Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Co., in New York City.

In October, 1899, he resigned to accept an offer from the engineering firm of J. G. White & Company, New York City, where he soon became assistant to the chief engineer.

In June, 1900, he resigned this position to accept another with the engineering firm of Sanderson & Porter, New York City, and in February, 1901, he was sent by them to Youngstown, Ohio, as engineer in charge of power plant construction for the Youngstown Gas & Electric Company and the new Youngstown & Sharon (Pa.) Electric Railroad. He resigned in October, 1902.

On May 1, 1903, he was employed by the Engineering Company of America, as chief engineer of power plant design and construction, and especially to do design work in the new 1,000-ton smelter and power plant of the Canadian Copper Company, subsidiary of the International Nickel Company at Copper Cliff, Ontario, Canada.

In 1904, that work being finished, he resigned and shortly after took on some confidential engineering tests on steam boiler furnace work for an eminent New York City financier and coal operator.

On September 1, 1905, he opened his own office as a consulting engineer and followed that line for some years, but eventually changed to the work of financing engineering enterprises. He has had his own office for the past thirty-one years.

In June, 1900, he became a member of St. Nicholas Lodge, No. 321, of Free and Accepted Masons, State of New York, in New York City, and in 1925, he became a life member of this Lodge.

He was formerly for two terms the President of the Delaware Society of New York City, an organization of some 250 men who were former residents of the State of Delaware, but residing in New York City. For about thirty-five years, he has been a member of the University of Pennsylvania Club of New York City, a member of the Council for thirty years and very active in University of Pennsylvania Alumni activities in New York City. He is also a life member of the International Benjamin Franklin Society, organized in New York City in 1923, "to perpetuate the memory and teachings of Benjamin Franklin."

In school and college days he was active in athletics—track athletics and football. During days in the Wilmington High School, he was the school's champion in the 100-yard and 220-yard races, and at the same time was the Y. M. C. A. champion in these races, as well as somewhat of a "star" in football for both high school and the Y. M. C. A.

Mr. Chandler is also New York State Chairman of the Chandler Family Association, in which he takes a great interest.

Irving A. Chandler was married at Youngstown, Ohio, November 4, 1903, to MARIA HOLLINGSWORTH LENI-GAN, daughter of Daniel and Elizabeth (Hollingsworth) Lenigan, of New York City, and Youngstown, Ohio. She was born in Youngstown, July 13, 1881, and living in New York in 1937. They were divorced May 27, 1935.

1040. GUSSIE KENNARD CHANDLER, daughter of Albert and Mary Elizabeth Ann (Godwin) Chandler, of Crumpton, Md., was born in Delmar, Md., 6-18-1885; living in Brooklyn, New York, in 1937. She married 9-17-1910, JOHN HARRISON GEARHART, born in Smyrna, Del., 1-29-1888, son of John Shipley and Jennie (Forman) Gearhart, of Smyrna, Del.

No issue.

1041. WALTER GODWIN CHANDLER, son of Albert and Mary Elizabeth Ann (Godwin) Chandler, was born in Crumpton, Md., 3 mo.-22-1888. He received his early education in the public schools in various towns on the peninsula, which is made up largely by the State of Delaware, and known as the Eastern Shore of Maryland.

Walter Chandler completed a four-year course in electrical engineering at Pratt Institute, Brooklyn, N. Y. In March, 1910, he was employed by the Brooklyn Edison Company, Brooklyn, N. Y., which company was the principal firm in Brooklyn engaged in the manufacture and distribution of electrical energy. He was assigned to the distribution end of the work. After a short period of time, he was promoted to a supervisory position in charge of pole line construction and electrical under-ground construction, and also work of a general emergency nature. In the discharge of his duties, he was greatly impressed with the importance of training workmen in safe ways of doing things with special attention to that end of the work known as hightension line construction and maintenance. After having devoted perhaps several thousand hours in preventive work as related to the saving of human lives, he voluntarily severed his activities in this respect. Soon after, our country declared war on Germany, in the year 1917, and he signed up with the U.S. Air Forces, serving almost two years in the capacity of Sergeant in Charge of Electrical Work in the First Pursuit Group Air Service, American Expeditionary Forces. He rendered service in five major war activities which are officially recorded as Champagne-Marne, Aisne-Marne, St. Michiel, Meuse-Argonne and Defensive Sector. His commanding officer was the American Ace of Aces, Captain Edward Rickenbacker.

When Walter Chandler returned to America in June, 1919, he was honorably discharged from the outfit just mentioned and immediately took up duties again with the Brooklyn Edison Company. In December, 1926, he was assigned as head of the Transportation Department in the company just mentioned, with the title of Superintendent of Transportation. In the management of 300 odd motor vehicles which traveled annually about 3,500,-000 miles in the city of Brooklyn, he saw great need for endeavor in the direction of safety. He invented several devices which have been used to educate drivers along the lines of driving fundamentals and he has had the very great satisfaction of witnessing in his company an eighty-per-cent reduction in personal injury cases as a result of automobile accidents. In this connection, it is interesting to know that one of his devices, invented for the promotion of safety education, has been copied with his permission by Doctor Berthold, Director of Traffic Safety for the country of Germany.

For many years, Walter Chandler has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He owns three residential houses, one in Crumpton, Maryland, in which his mother lives; one in Brooklyn, N. Y., in which he resides the greater part of the year; and one near Huntington, Long Island, which he uses as a summer home.

Walter Godwin Chandler married June 19, 1924, ETHEL GRACE WHITELEY.

Nelson M. Clayton was descended in the eighth generation from William Clayton, who came to America in 1671, as well as the Foulkes and Matsons, all of whom came to this country and settled here before the coming of William Penn.

WILLIAM CLAYTON, the Pioneer Ancestor of the family, came to America with his family on the ship "Kent," from London, in company with certain commissioners, sent out by the Proprietors of New Jersey to purchase land from the Indians. The ship "Kent," being the second ship from London to the western port, after a tedious passage, arrived at New Castle, Delaware, the 16th of the 6 mo. (O. S.) 1677. William Clayton settled first in Burlington, N. J., but in March, 1678-9, he purchased the share of Hans Oelson, one of the original grantees of Marcus Hook, Pa., and settled at that place. He was a Friend, and an active and consistent member. He was also active in political matters. He was a member of Governor Markham's Council and also of the Proprietary after his arrival, and at the same time served as one of the Justices of the Court of Upland County, and subsequently for that of Chester County, presiding at the first course in Pennsylvania, under the Proprietary Government. On 8th mo.-24-1864, he was elected President of the Provincial Council, which, for the time being, was practically the position of Governor of the Colony. He died in 1689, leaving a widow, Prudence, and at least four children. Through William Clayton, his only son, are descended all those bearing the name of Clayton of the early Chester County family.

1693. J. POULSON CHANDLER, son of Joseph P. and Lucretia M. (Ely) Chandler, of Delaware, was born at Centreville, Del., 10-25-1880; living in 1937.

For five generations, the Chandlers continued to live in the same place and in the same house in Christiana Hundred, New Castle County, Delaware. Joseph Chandler, great-great-grandfather of J. Poulson Chandler, with his son Benjamin Chandler, built the big brick house that stood for so many years on the homestead farm in 1804. The brick used were burned on the place. The farm contained 204 acres and was occupied by a

Chandler right down to 1934, at which time Mr. J. Poulson Chandler sold the property to Henry F. DuPont, and this land is now all included in his private golf course.

Mr. Chandler built a home in Centreville, about a mile and a half away from the old home, to which he moved from the farm. When the transfer was made to Mr. DuPont, this was the first time that the land had gone out of the family since 1687. The brick house built in 1804 stood near the place where the widow Chandler built the first log house.

Mr. Chandler owns a number of pieces of the old family furniture. Among his prized possessions is an old clock, side-board, table, desk, and Bible that has been used for generations by the Chandlers. He also has collected deeds, agreements, bills and receipts dated back to the earliest transactions in the family, which are most interesting. Mr. Chandler has been very active in the Chandler Family Association.

Abner built his present home in 1926; it is located on North Woodward Avenue, Roselle, within one hundred feet of the site of the old "Woodward homestead" that was occupied by his grandfather, Joseph Woodward, and where he raised a large family of thirteen. The original homestead was razed about the year of 1928, but a number of the original trees (old shade maples) are still standing on the lawn, and also some of the old shrubbery. A more modern bungalow type home was built on the original site.

In politics he is an ardent Republican, as all the Woodwards were and are, as he claims he never knew any who were not. He was born and raised on a farm and has followed the occupation of farming for the greater part of his life. By choice he was a mechanical draftsman, but failing eyesight caused him to choose the other occupation.

SWITHIN CHANDLER

SECOND GENERATION

4. SWITHIN CHANDLER, third son of George and Jane Chandler, was born September 6, 1674, and baptized in England, and was a young lad when he came to this country with his parents. As his father died on the way over, no doubt Swithin, being one of the eldest sons, had to assume responsibilities early in life in order to give what help he could to the widowed mother, in raising his younger brother and sisters.

In 1704 he married. His wife was ANN ——— (her maiden name we do not know). He settled on Brandywine Creek, in *Christiana Hundred, Delaware.

He and his younger brother, Thomas Chandler, who married Mary Mankin, seemed to have been more closely identified with each other than with the rest of the family. They purchased land on the west side of the Brandywine, just below the circular line of New Castle County, Delaware, and they continued to reside there. At one time they owned a mill property on Beaver Creek, on the opposite side of the Brandywine. Thomas' residence was on a part of the land in the bend of the creek where it returns into Pennsylvania, and Swithin was also styled of Birmingham Township, Chester County, prior to 1733, and was constable for the township in 1710. Perhaps he and Thomas lived together, or in different parts of the same house. He died about 1742, leaving a large family of sons and daughters, through whom there are many descendants of Swithin Chandler.

Thomas Chandler, his brother, was a member of the Provincial Legislature of Pennsylvania for twenty years. He was a man of whom many interesting things can be written. He died in 1761, leaving no children.

Swithin and Ann Chandler had the following children:

2000. i. Jacob, b. 2-9-1705; m. in 1730, Martha Greave.

2001. ii. Charity, b. 1-20-1707; m. in 1728, John Nichols.

2002. iii. Ann, b. 2-1-1709; d. 3-14-1761; m. in 1725, George Dixson.

2003. iv. Jane, b. 3-11-1711; d. 9-19-1774; m. in 1733, John Greave.

2004. v. Sarah, b. 3-20-1713; m. in 1739, Jonathan Greave.

2005. vi. Swithin, b. 10-1-1715; m. in 1739, Ann Wilson.

2006. vii. Thomas, b. 10-3-1718; d. 5-18-1782; m. (1) 1-23-1742, Elizabeth Gibson; m. (2) in 1747, Ann Hickline.

2007. viii. Margaret, b. 5-6-1721.

2008. ix. Mary, b. 5-18-1723. 2009. x. Phebe, b. 3-31-1726.

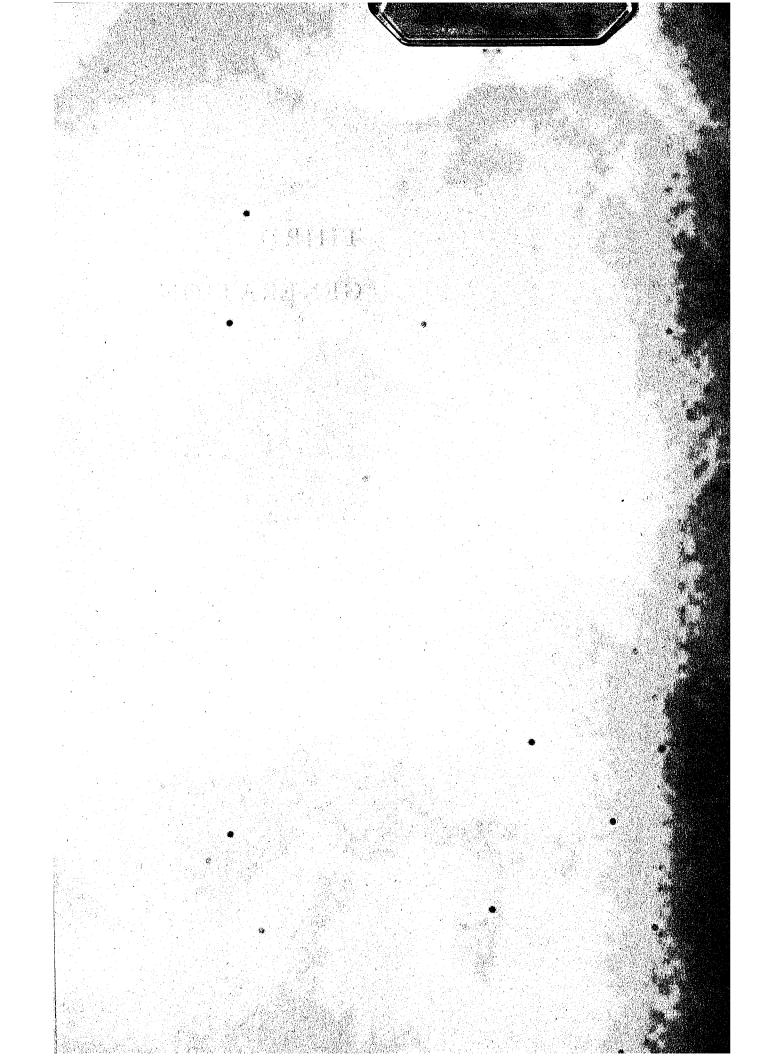

2010. xi. Betty, b. 1-25-1729.

2117. SWITHIN SHORTLIDGE, son of John and Phebe (Chandler) Shortlidge, was born 10 mo.-6-1772; died 8 mo.-16-1822. He married 12 mo.-19-1799, at New Garden Friends Meeting, HANNAH GAWTHROP, born 10 mo.-24-1776; died 11 mo.-16-1856, daughter of George and Jane (Allen) Gawthrop, of London Grove Township, Chester County, På.,

and granddaughter of Thomas Gawthrop, the Pioneer Ancestor, and his wife Isabel Crosfield. The old marriage certificate of Swithin and Hannah (Gawthrop) Chandler is in the possession of one of his descendants. It contains sixty-five signatures of witnesses.

Thomas Gawthrop came to Pennsylvania before the 13th day of June 1757, the date of a warrant to him for land in Chester County. He was from Preston Patricks, Westmoreland, where he was born in 1709. He died 9-29-1780, in Chester County, Pa. On 10-31-1736, he married Isabel Crosfield, daughter of Simon Crosfield, of Lowpack, near Kendal, England.

George Gawthrop of London Grove, Chester County, Pa., was his son. George Gawthrop was born 10 mo.-17-1743, in England; died 8 mo.-27-1798, in London Grove. He married 12 mo.-31-1772, Jane Allen, daughter of James and Jane (Brown) Allen. She was born 1 mo.-15-1753; died 9 mo.-30-1821. Jane is said to have been a superior woman and much esteemed and loved by her family. Her husband, George Gawthrop, died the same day their ninth child was born.

One daughter Jane, and six grand-children, Jane Moore (wife of Hibberd Moore), Jane Tussey, Jane Moore (wife of Joshua Moore), Jane Mitchell, Jane Lovegrove, and Jane Jackson were all namesakes. Her surname, Allen, was given to a son, a grandson, and a great-grandson.

She was a daughter of John and Patience (Moore) Wanee, of near Brownsville, Fayette County, Pa.

They settled first in Fayette County where he owned land. In 1823, he moved with his family to Belmont County, Ohio, near Gurnsey and Harrison Counties, where he owned land. He was a farmer and miller. He was killed accidentally while at his mill. The water wheel froze fast in the night so that it failed to start when the gate was raised, and he took an ax and cut away the ice, aiming to weaken it so it would start when he would raise the gate again. He finished cutting the ice and was climbing out when the wheel started and caught him between the siding and the arm of the powerful wheel. Someone in the mill had raised the gate before he had time to get clear.

2161. ANN GREGG, daughter of Samuel and Dinah (Chandler) Gregg, was born at Christiana Hundred, Del., 7 mo.-20-1775; died 8 mo.-25-1897. She married 11-25-1795, at Centre Meeting, THOMAS HOOPES, born 10 mo.-7-1770;

died 10-14-1826, son of Thomas and Sarah (Bane) Hoopes, a member of the Hoopes Family of Bucks and Chester Counties. The emigrant ancestor of the family was Joshua Hoopes.

JOSHUA HOOPES, the Pioneer Ancestor of the family, was born in Yorkshire, England, and tradition says at the time of the Civil War he was a cornet in the Parliament Army. It is told by one of his descendants that he had seen Joshua's military belt, which was used by one of his descendants who followed shoemaking, to hold his work while sewing. It is said he had two brothers. One settled in Wales, but left no descendants, while the other removed to Ireland and was the ancestor of many there.

Joshua Hoopes, of Skelton in Cleiveland, Yorkshire, came to Pennsylvania on the Ship Providence, Robert Hopper, master, and arrived in the River Delaware, 10th day of 9th month, 1683. With him were his wife Isabel and their children Daniel, Margaret and Christian, and is so recorded in the Philadelphia Registry.

He was a member of the Falls Meeting in which we find him taking an active part from the time of his arrival. Meetings were often held at his house. Isabel, his wife, died in 1691, and on the 20th day 10 mo.-1693, Joshua married Elenor Powall, widow.

Joshua Hoopes was elected to the Provincial Assembly in the years 1686, 1688, 1692, 1695, 1696, 1697, 1700, 1701, 1703, 1706, 1708, 1709 and 1711 (Pa. Arch., 2nd Ser., Vol. IX, p. 752-55).

Daniel Hoopes was a lad of about fourteen years of age when he was brought to this country. On December 10, 1696, at the Friends Meeting, at the house of John Bowater, in the county of Chester, Daniel Hoopes of Bucks County, Pa., and Jane Worrilaw, daughter of Thomas of Chester County, Pa., were married. His father deeded to him one-half of all the land upon which he dwells, 10 mo.-8-1696 (Bucks County Deed Book 2, p. 110). In 1697, Daniel Hoopes purchased 300 acres of land in Westtown Township, Chester County, and settled there, and in 1697, he purchased 175 acres more.

Daniel Hoopes was also elected to the Assembly in the years of 1708 and 1709 (Pa. Arch., 2nd Ser., IX Vol., p. 685), and through Daniel Hoopes are descended all those bearing the name of Hoopes who are descended from the first settler, Joshua Hoopes.

Thomas Hoopes was son of Thomas and Sarah (Bane) Hoopes and grandson of Nathan and Margaret Hoopes, and Nathan was the son of Daniel, son of Joshua, the Pioneer Ancestor.

COMMUNION CUP, WILCOT PARISH HOUSE
(The name of John Chandler, churchwarden, appears on cup)

Martha Hutton Shortlidge was a woman of intelligence and force of character. Before her marriage she was a teacher in a Quaker school in Wilmington, Del. She early implanted in the hearts of her children a desire for an education, so much so that one of them has stated that her children could not remember the time they could not read. Her father, Hiett Hutton, was the son of Thomas Hutton (1716-1802) and wife Katharine (Hiatt), and the grandson of Joseph Hutton, who came from Ireland in 1712, and his wife Mary Miller, whose father John Miller and his wife Mary Agnew came from Ireland in 1709. On her maternal side she traces her ancestry to Ellis Pugh (1636-1718), and others.

2544. PROF. JOSEPH SHORTLIDGE, M.A., son of George and Martha (Hutton) Shortlidge, was born 8 mo.-1-1832, at the family homestead in New Garden Township, where his father was born. Joseph Shortlidge acquired a broad education, completing courses of study in Jonathan Gause's Greenwood Dell Academy in Chester County, in the Williams Chemical Laboratory in Philadelphia, and in the Fort Edward (New York) Institute, before entering Yale University. He entered the University in 1859, but from overwork his eyesight became impaired during the latter part of his freshman year and he was forced to give up his studies for a time. He made up the requirements of the course, however, and received the degree of Master of Arts.

Even while obtaining his education, Prof. Shortlidge was performing useful and creditable work as a teacher. He began as a public school teacher at Concordville, Pa., in 1852, where he still pursued his studies, often walking to West Chester, a distance of eight and a half miles, to take French lessons. As early as 1856, he began teaching in Greenwood Dell. The following year he was principal of Putnam (New York) Academy, and he was then for two years principal of Fairview Institute, in Chester County, Pa.

In 1862, he purchased a tract of land near the Friends Meeting House in Concordville, and built the school known as Maplewood Institute, with which his name has since been inseparably associated. He was principal of this institute until 1880, when he resigned in order to accept the presidency of the Pennsylvania State College, near Bellefonte, Centre County, Pa. During his administration at State College, he made strenuous efforts to establish certain changes and reforms necessary for the success of the college as an educational institution. At one time he made an extensive trip through the western states in the interest of the college. At this time he found the call of his own school work too strong to be dismissed. He therefore resigned the presidency of the College and returned to Maplewood Institute, with which his connections remained the remainder of his life.

The value of Maplewood Institute and Professor Shortlidge's great usefulness as a principal and instructor, are attested by the great number of students who have come under his charge during more than fifty years of his service. Many of them have risen to eminence in the professions, in commercial life, and public places. Among them are prominent lawyers, physicians and others who have become conspicuous in state and national affairs.

Professor Shortlidge was a man of high ideals. Men and women from all walks of life have testified in simple but eloquent phrases to the fact that he had exerted on them influences for good which had proved of much use to them in later years of life. Across Time's wide silence they could hear his voice as he urged his students to hold fast to the better things in life, to be upright and fear not.

Exacting as were his duties as an instructor, he never failed in his duties as a citizen. Upon Lee's invasion in Pennsylvania in 1863, he responded to the call of President Lincoln for men for six months' service. He enlisted in a company of which he was elected sergeant, and which as part of Major Short's Battalion, participated in the defense of the state.

He rendered to the public valuable service in various responsible positions. For a number of years he served as a school director and as Justice of the Peace. He was a Friend in religion, and in politics a staunch adherent to the Republican party. He was a member of the Bradbury Post, G. A. R., of Media, Pa.

Professor Shortlidge was married May 24, 1865, to CARO-LINE B. GAUSE, a highly educated lady, daughter of Jonathan Gause who was one of the most prominent educators of his day, and Professor Shortlidge was a student of his in his early school days in Greenwood Dell Academy. Caroline, his wife, died May 23, 1874.

To this marriage were born:

2964. i. Marian E., b. 4-28-1866; m. 12-29-1891, Jared Darlington.
2965. ii. Dr. Charles Beverly, b. 1-24-1868; m. 11-7-1905, Josephine M. Showers.

2966. iii. J. Chauncy, b. 8-2-1872; m. 6-14-1923, Helen Wood.

Professor Shortlidge married (2) 12 mo.-21-1893, Miss ISABEL GAWTHROPE SHORTLIDGE, daughter of Joel and Sarah Shortlidge. She was his cousin. Isabel G. Shortlidge was a very talented woman and a splendid public speaker. She was interested in politics early and her work on the platform during the election of President McKinley was much in demand. She was also a writer. One of her poems, appearing elsewhere in this volume, was read at the reunion of the descendants of George and Jane Chandler in 1887.

2547. PROF. SWITHIN CHANDLER SHORTLIDGE, son of George and Martha (Hutton) Shortlidge, was born 6 mo.-8-1840; died 1931, at Cornwall, N. Y.; buried at Media, Pa.. He married 3 mo.-1874, at Kennett Square, Pa., MARY JANE JOHNSON, born in 1840, at Kirks Mills, Lancaster County, Pa.; died 2 mo.-4-1890, at Media, Pa., daughter of William and Amelia (Hoopes) Johnson, of near Oxford, Pa.

2565. SWITHIN SHORTLIDGE, son of Evan and Sarah (Hollen) Shortlidge, was born in New Garden Township, Chester County, Pa., 11 mo.-11-1851; died 8 mo.-16-1920. He was educated in the public schools, and on finishing his education he took up farming, which he followed practically throughout his life. In 1873, he decided to try his fortune in the west, but after a short stay, returned to New Garden, where he resided the rest of his life. He raised many fine cattle and much produce, and attended the markets in Wilmington, Del., which he kept up for many years, and had a large trade. He made the trips summer and winter by horse and wagon, and he claimed his rugged health was due to his out-door work.

He was a Republican in politics, and early became a leader of the organization in his section. He served in many offices. He served as school director and supervisor with credit; in 1906 he was elected Commissioner of Chester County, and on assuming his duties began a service which stands today as a monument to his memory. He was an advocate of good bridges and good roads, and worked hard along these lines. He was elected a second time and became President of the Board.

He was largely instrumental in the erection of the Soldiers and Sailors Monument which stands on the Court House lawn, and took great pride in this tribute to the veterans.

He served as Director of the Poor, to which office he was elected by a large majority. He was President of the West Grove Farmers Club, and entertained the members at his home on numerous occasions. For a time he was President of the Chester County Farm Bureau. He was a member of the Masonic Order, as well as the Patrons of Husbandry, and took a lively interest in each. He was a birthright member of the New Garden Friends Meeting.

Swithin Shortlidge married 3 mo.-30-1876, MAGDALENE WHITE, of Franklin Township, daughter of Richard White and Hannah (Spencer) his wife, of Franklin Township, Chester County, Pa.

After graduating, he went into the real estate business in Philadelphia, and in 1912 started in business in West Philadelphia for himself, which he conducted very successfully. He resided in Philadelphia until 1918, when he purchased a home at Highland Park, Delaware County, Pa., and moved there, and is residing there at the present time (1937). In 1923, he opened a real estate office in Llanerch.

Mr. Shortlidge has always been and is interested in anything that is for the betterment of the community in which he resides. He was an early member and a Director of the Philadelphia Real Estate Board; a member of the Masonic Order and Chairman of the Demolay's Advisory Council; Vice-President of the Fathers Association of Upper Darby School District; member of the Patriotic Sons of America, and the Artisan Association. He has always been much interested in both Family Associations—the Chandler and the Shortlidge—and has acted as President of The Chandler Family Association. At present, he is First Vice-President of that Association and very active in the preparation for the 250th Reunion.

Herschel E. Shortlidge was married in Wilmington, Del., at Cookman M. E. Church, 9 mo.-12-1910, to EVA BACON, born 5 mo.-15-1887, at North East, Maryland, daughter of Jonathan H. and Mary P. (Covey) Bacon. Jonathan H. Bacon, her father, was the son of John Lowder Bacon, of Laurel, Delaware, a member of the Bacon Family of Virginia. Her mother, Mary P. Covey, was the daughter of Joshua Covey and Elizabeth (Aspirill) Moore, of Cherry Lane, Chesterville, Kent County, Md., of whom the following story is told:

Joshua Covey and Elizabeth Aspirill were young sweethearts. Joshua was ambitious and, it being the time of the Gold Rush, wanted to seek his fortune in the west, and then return to marry Elizabeth. Accordingly, he and his younger brother joined others who were then going to California. Time went on, but no news was heard of them back home. Finally, Elizabeth, believing he was either dead or had forgotten her, married a man by the name of Moore. However, Joshua was not dead, nor had he forgotten her, but was simply engrossed in his endeavor to make his fortune, and it did not come easily. After a long and hard struggle during which many hardships were endured, many disappointments met, and many discouragements encountered, he reached his goal and prepared to return to Elizabeth. When he did, however, he found her the wife of another. He was sadly disappointed, but realizing that it was due to his own negligence and that she had believed him dead, he bade farewell and returned to California. Some years later, Joshua learned that Elizabeth's husband had died, leaving her with one little girl. He immediately prepared to return. He divided with his brother their holdings and returned East. He purchased 300 acres of land in Kent County, Md., built a home, laid out his farm, which was called Cherry Lane, and married his boyhood sweetheart. They had one child, a daughter, Mary, who married Jonathan Bacon, the parents of Eva Bacon.

Herschel E. and Eva Shortlidge had children:

3284. i. Herschel E., Jr., b. 7 mo.-19-1912.

They lived in Gurnsey County for some time, then went to Hardin County. In 1838, George and Keturah Wine and their family located in Grant County, Indiana, and William and Rachel Wine and their family accompanied them. In 1846, they were living in LaGrange County, Indiana, and in 1850, they were in Steuben County in the same state.

In 1853, they went to Des Moines, Iowa, the town consisting of a few scattered buildings near the location of the present capitol buildings. They drove one hundred head of cattle from Indiana and the boys walked most of the way, driving them. In July of 1855, they located in Sac County, Iowa. He bought a farm in Jackson Township, and was one of the first six families to locate in the county.

William Wine opened the first general store in the town of Sac City, and in 1856 was elected Assessor for the county. When the Wine family came to Iowa, it was not the intention that they remain there, for he had planned to go to California to the gold fields. But his eldest daughter, Margaret Ann, and her husband, William Allen, had preceded the Wine family and had located in Polk County, Iowa, and Rachel, the mother, declared she would go no further as she wished to be near her daughter, so they eventually located in Sac County.

However, William Wine did not give up his plans and in 1859, accompanied by his daughter, Lydia Jane, and her husband, William Henry Hobbs, started on his way to California. William and Lydia Jane went only as far as Pike's Peak and returned to Sac County, but William Wine continued on his way and located at Placerville, California. When he located his gold mining claims, he wrote to his wife to sell all their holdings and she and the children still at home to join him in the west. Before she could do this, she received word that he was dead, so she remained in Iowa. Later she married THOMAS MOFFITT, of Guthrie County, Iowa.

In the winter of 1856-57, the Indians who were later involved in the Spirit Lake massacre, wintered near the Wine home, but these Indians gave the settlers no trouble. One of them at least lived up to his word. This man became ill and Sarah (Staats) Wine took him into the cabin, giving him medicine and allowing him to lie before the fire for several days. When he left in the spring, the Indian told her that if she would give him two sacks, he would bring her feathers from wild fowls when he returned in the fall. Grain sacks cost money, but he was given two of them. Months later two sacks of feathers were found in front of the Wine cabin.

When the news came of the Spirit Lake massacre, a dance was in progress in the Wine cabin. The men in the party immediately left for Ida Grove and Lake City to get more help and the women spent the night in making bullets which the men took on their trip northward. On the Little Sioux they met men returning and on being told the trouble was over, the Sac County men returned to their homes.

William and Rachel (Staats) Wine had the following children:

- 3390. i. Margaret Ann, b. 6-2-1833, in Gurnsey Co., Ohio; d. 8-7-1910, in Oregon; m. in Steuben Co., Ind., William Allen.

Both of his parents were born in Ireland. Shortly after his birth, the family moved to New Orleans, where his mother died when William was seven and his father died when he was fourteen. After the death of his parents, he made his home with his uncle, Father Martin Hobbs, who was then pastor of the Shullsburg Catholic Church. While with his uncle, he attended a Catholic School for boys. Later he was employed as a clerk in a store owned by Judge Eugene Criss, and when the Criss family went to Sac County, Iowa, in 1855, he accompanied them as a member of their family. They were among the first settlers in the county. Shortly after that he married Lydia Jane Wine.

William Henry Hobbs and wife became members of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was County Clerk for several terms and the first Auditor of Sac County, a County Supervisor, and a charter member of the Masonic Chapter at Sac City. He was also a charter member of Rose Croix Commandery, Knights of Templar and Vice-President of the Sac County State Bank, the first bank in the county.

SECOND GENERATION

6. WILLIAM CHANDLER, the fourth son of George and Jane Chandler, was born December 8, 1678, and baptized in England. He was a young lad of eight years of age when he came to this country. He married 7 mo.-10-1712, ANN BOWATER, daughter of John and Frances Bowater of Middletown township. He was a shoemaker and owned land in Chichester, near the first homestead, but about 1722 he removed to London Grove Township, one and a quarter miles south of the Friends Meeting House of that name, where he had purchased one hundred acres. Three of his wife's sisters were married to settlers in that township, which probably influenced his removal. He died in London Grove, Chester County, Pa., in 1746. The following is a copy of his will on file in Chester County:

WILL OF WILLIAM CHANDLER

I, William Chandler of London Grove Township, in the County of Chester, calling to mind the mortality of my body and knowing that it is appointed for all men once to Die. Do make and ordain this my last will and testament, that is to say principally and first of all, I give and recommend my soul into the hand of God that gave it, and my body I recommend to the earth to be burried in a Christian and Decent manner at the discretion of my Ext'r. and as touching such wordly estate wherewith it has pleased God to bless me in this life.

I give, devise & despose of ye same in the following manner & form.

Imprimis. My will is that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid & discharged as soon as may be after my decease. Item I give and devise to my son John Chandler my house and land containing about one hundred acres, to him and his heirs & assigns for ever he yielding and paying to my daughter Anne fifteen pounds to be paid her at the age of twenty one years. Also to pay to my son Thomas ten pounds when he shall arrive at the age of twenty one. Also that he pay to my son Moses Twenty pounds when he shall arrive at the age of Twenty one years. Item I giv and devise unto my daughter Anne one feather bed and bedding thereto belonging Item I give and devise to my daughter Mary three iron potts three pewter dishes six pewter plates two Basons and one bed & bedding thereto belonging with fifteen pounds money paid her by my son John at the age of Twenty one years. 3544. JOHN CHANDLER, son of Allen and Sarah (Pyle) Chandler, was born in London Grove, 12 mo.-24-1791; died at Kennett Square, 9 mo.-2-1857; buried at Kennett Square, Pa. He was a member of the State Legislature for several years and a member of the Constitutional Convention which met in Philadelphia in 1837 and formed the Constitution of Pennsylvania which lasted until 1873. He married at Kennett Square Meeting 5 mo.-11-1825, MARIA JANE WALTER, born at Kennett Square, 3 mo.-21-1804; died at same place 8 mo.-30-1879; buried at Kennett Square, daughter of William and Sarah (Taylor) Walter, and a descendant of Godwin Walter, the Pioneer Ancestor of the family in America.

GODWIN WALTER, the progenitor of the family, came to America on the ship "Unicorn," arriving on the 16th day of 10th month, 1685. His home in England was probably in the neighbourhood of Devizes, a town on the road from London to Bath, eighty-five miles from London, or else near Bedwin Magna, which is seventy miles from London. We assume this because of the fact that in 1681, before emigrating to America, he was a witness to a conveyance between Samuel Noyes of Devizes and Thomas Martin of Bedwin Magne for land in Pennsylvania. On September 27, 1686, he purchased from George Strode one hundred acres of land in Concord Township, Chester County, Pennsylvania. On March 13, 1694, he was appointed constable for that township, and again in 1701-02. On May 28, 1706, he was a member of the "pettie" jury, and on August 26, 1707, he again served in that capacity.

Godwin Walter married Elizabeth Sanghurst. The intentions were announced at the Monthly Meeting of Friends, 12th of 8 mo.-1696; on 9th of 9 mo.-1696, at Nicholas Newlin's, they appeared a second time, and no obstruction appearing they were given liberty to proceed in marriage.

They had nine children, the sixth being Joseph who married Jane Brinton. They had a son William who married Margaret Taylor, and had a daughter Maria Jane who married John Chandler.

married at West Fallowfield, 5 mo.-25-1820, MARY EATON, born at East Fallowfield, 3 mo.-22-1800; died at Doe Run, 5 mo. 25-1871; buried at Oakland Cemetery, West Chester, Pa.; daughter of David and Mary (Potts) Eaton, a lineal descendant of the Emperor Charlemagne.

They lived on a rented farm from 1820 until 1839. He then purchased the James Chalfont farm in Upper Marlborough and sold it in 1846 to purchase a farm near Wagontown. This he sold and made several other sales and purchases of property at West Chester, New Garden, East Marlborough, and Doe Run, living a few years at each place. He first engaged in the occupation of farming, and later as Inn Keeper. He is recorded as having a hotel at Doe Run until 1876. He was a candidate for nomination as Sheriff of Chester County in 1843. He married out of meeting and never applied for membership again. In politics, he was a Whig and Republican.

3717. MARY CHANDLER, daughter of Israel and Lydia (Gruelle) Chandler, was born 8 mo.-5-1820, in Lexington County, Kentucky; died in 1907. She married 1-19-1847, WILLIAM DAVIS, born in Ireland.

After their marriage they settled at Bourbon, Ill., and then at Pesotum, Ill., and later near Tuscola, Ill. In 1854, he suddenly disappeared from his home, and was never heard from again. As far as his family knew he was born and educated in Ireland for a profession, and they always believed it was for a priest, and for some reason unknown he gave up the church and the preparations for priesthood, and that for this he was disinherited and he came to America. He was a man well educated and taught school in this country. He stood well in his community, and no reason for this strange disappearance could be found.

They had one child, but mother and child both died same day.

John Chandler, in 1831, went with his parents to Clermont County, Ohio, and from there in the fall of 1839 to Coles County, Ill. His education he gained in the public schools and he taught school and worked on the farm until 1846, when he volunteered for one year in the Mexican War. One of his remembrances of the Mexican War is that of having examined and replaced in the carriage, Sautiana's famous wooden leg and boot which was afterwards carried away by some Ohio man.

He was elected Treasurer and Assessor of Coles County in 1853, which office he held for three years, after which he acted as deputy Sheriff until 1859, when Coles County was divided, the northern part being named Douglas County, of which county he was elected first County Clerk and he continued in this office until 1865, when he moved to his present homestead (1887), one mile east of Tuscola, County Seat of Douglas County.

John Chandler married (2) in Tuscola, Ill., 1 mo.-20-1863, SARAH JANE P. ELKIN (called Jennie), born 8 mo.-2-1840, in Terre Haute, Ind., daughter of Merryman E. and Susan America (Bailey) Elkin, of Tuscola, Ill.

3897. MARIA LOUISE CHANDLER, daughter of John Walter and Almira L. (Taylor) Chandler, was born 5 mo.-11-1867, at Hamorton, Chester County, Pa. She married 10 mo.-17-1889, WALLACE COATES WILLIAMS, who died in 1929, son of Abram C. and Emily W. (Dillman), and a descendant of Thomas Williams, the progenitor of the family in America, as follows:

THOMAS WILLIAMS, the Pioneer Ancestor of this branch of the Williams Family, was the son of Andrew and Elizabeth Williams, and was baptized at St. Austell, England, August 22, 1697, and died in Philadelphia, Pa., 11 mo.-5-1734, about a year after arriving in America. He was baptized as a member of the Established Church (Church of England), but he was married as a Quaker, and died a member of the Religious Society of Friends. He left England with his wife and children and, being Quakers, they naturally headed for the Quaker Colony of Pennsylvania. They arrived in Philadelphia from Cornwall, England, November 19, 1733, having sailed by way of Bristol.

Thomas Williams married at St. Austell, England, 5 mo.-2-1722, Mary Reed, who was baptized at Menheniot, near Liskeard, Cornwall, March 27, 1694, and died in Philadelphia, 9 mo.-10-1767, daughter of John and Melior Reed of Menheniot. They had seven children, the three eldest born in England, the rest in Philadelphia.

Thomas Williams, their eldest son, and second child, was born in England, 10 mo.-17-1724, and died in Philadelphia, 6 mo.-24-1783. He married at Merion Meeting, 10 mo.-14-1750, Rachel Warner, who died in Philadelphia, 4-20-1776, daughter of John Warner, of Blockley Township, Philadelphia County. They had twelve children, among them son Thomas (3d).

Thomas Williams, 3rd, the eleventh child of Thomas and Rachel, was born in Philadelphia, August 23, 1850. He married in Bucks County, Pa., in 1801, Rachel DuBré, born 1779; died 1823, daughter of James and Sarah (Lacey) DuBré, a descendant of William Lacey who came from the Isle of Wight and settled near Wrightstown, Pennsylvania, and Zebulon Heston who came from Heston parish in England in 1684, and settled in Philadelphia, where he bought land in that part of the colony called Hestonville. He died in Wrightstown, about 1725.

Thomas and Rachel (DuBré) Williams had ten children, among them Charles Benjamin, born in Philadelphia in 1803, died there 11 mo.-15-1870. He married May 19, 1831, Sarah Coates (or Coats) born in 1804 and died in 1855. They had six children, among them Abraham C. Williams, their youngest who was born in 1841. He married in Philadelphia, in 1862, EMILY W. DILLMAN. Among their children was their son WAL-LACE COATES WILLIAMS, who married Maria Louise Chandler.

CHILD:

3899. PERCY MILTON CHANDLER, son of John Walter and Alma L. (Taylor) Chandler, was born in Philadelphia, February 6, 1873. His education was received in public and private schools of his native city. He attended the Friends's Central School. His first start in the business world was made at the age of fifteen, when on May 1, 1888, he entered the employment of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at the same time following his studies. Subsequently, he took up the study of law and was admitted to the bar of Philadelphia.

Instead of essaying a career in the profession of the law, Mr. Chandler gave heed to the stronger inclinations to enter the practice of finance and in 1899 he became a member of the firm of Chandler Brothers and Company, bankers. In December, 1913, he organized the present corporation of Chandler and Company, Incorporated, under the laws of the State of New York, with a paid-in capital of $1,750,000, to take over the bond investment business of Chandler Brothers and Company. Mr. Chandler was elected president of the new corporation of Chandler and Company, Inc., which office he has ever since held, his principal activities being directed in the line of financing public utilities, chainstores and general industrial corporations throughout the United States and Canada.

Chandler and Company, Inc., is located in the two upper floors of the twenty-two-story bank building at 1500 Walnut Street, in Philadelphia, and their New York offices are at 120 Broadway, in the heart of the financial district.

In addition to his occupying the offices of president and director of Chandler and Company, Inc., Mr. Chandler holds similar positions in P. M. Chandler and Company, Securities Corporation General (originated by Chandler and Company, Inc.), International Utilities Corporation, Brandywine Farms Corporation and Pennsbury Farms Corporation. He is a director on the board of the Philadelphia Dairy Products Company, United States Stores Corporation, and National Food Products Corporation, and is a director of numerous other corporations, among them P. H. Butler Company, Richmond Ice Company, Inc., American Equities Company and Dominion Gas and Electric Corporation.

HAMLET OF OARE

A lifelong member of the Republican party, Mr. Chandler served his Pennsylvania State organization as delegate-at-large at the Republican National Convention held in Chicago in 1920. He is always to be relied upon for his support of every movement having as its main objective the welfare and progress of the Quaker City and the Keystone State. During the World War period he served as chairman of the Liberty Loan committee for the department and chain stores in the Philadelphia District, also on the executive committee of the Philadelphia War Chest's $20,000,000 drive. He has accepted office as trustee of Temple *University, Philadelphia, and is a member of the American Museum of Natural History, the Geographical Society of Philadelphia, the American Academy of Political and Social Science, the Historical Society of Chester County, the Valley Forge Historical Society of Valley Forge, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Tennis, golf and riding, among the outdoor recreational sports, command Mr. Chandler's most ardent enthusiasm. In Philadelphia he belongs to the Union League, Philadelphia Country Club, Art Club and Racquet Club. He is also a member of the Whitemarsh Valley Country Club, Pickering Hunt, Sunnybrook Golf Club, Seaview Golf Club, Kennett Square Golf and Country Club; Congressional Country Club of Washington, District of Columbia; Vicmead Hunt Club of Wilmington, Delaware; the Recess Club, Cloud Club and the Bankers' Club, of New York City; the Sands Point Golf Club and the Aviation Country Club of Long Island; the Everglades Club and the Boco Raton Club of Florida.

Mr. Chandler is a man of versatile interests and tastes, diligent in business, earnest in whatever service he lends his hand, and eager withal in the pursuit of cultural activities. His career has been signally punctuated with success, from whatever angle it may be viewed, and it can truly be said that he is one of the most suseful citizens that his native city of Philadelphia has produced in a generation.

Percy Milton Chandler married (1) October 20, 1896, EMMA B. MENDENHALL, who died July 5, 1916. There were no children to this marriage. He married (2) November 1, 1916, NANCY LOUISE KREBS, of Winchester, Virginia. Divorced in 1926.

Later he became Civil and Mechanical Engineer. He had charge of all outside engineering work of the company from 1886 until 1906 when he resigned.

Mr. Chandler, past president of the Chandler Association, has always been very active in all its work, deeply interested in family history and genealogy, and has gathered much valuable data on not only the Chandler Family, but on all lines of which he claims descent. In connection with this, he has visited England and the original site of the family. He is now in his eightieth year, but is preparing and working for the Chandler Reunion of 1937, celebrating the 250th Anniversary of the family's arrival in America.

4385. ii. Thaddeus, Jr., b. 4-26-1917.

Almira Chandler Williams, through her great-grandmother, Maria Jane Walter, can trace her ancestry back to Robert Taylor, *the Pioneer Ancestor, as follows:

ROBERT TAYLOR, son of Thomas and Mary (Barrow) Taylor, was the Pioneer Ancestor of this branch of the Taylor Family. He was baptized at Great Budworth Church, Little Leigh, England, December 15, 1633, and died in Springfield, Chester (now Delaware) County, Pa., in 1695, between April 24, the date of his will, and May 16, when it was probated.

At an early age he severed his connections with the church of this forefathers and became a member of the Society of Friends. Continued unjust persecution of members of this sect because of their religious views drove many to seek a new home in America. Robert Taylor was one of the Quakers who decided to join the Colony founded in Pennsylvania by William Penn, and in anticipation of this new settlement acquired a grant of one thousand acres of land, allotted to him on his arrival in Pennsylvania in two surveys; one in the neighbourhood of what is now the village of Broomall, Delaware County; the other south of the Springfield Water Basin; the first in 1682, the other in 1683.

Robert Taylor married in England, about 1663, Mary Hayes, sister of Jonathan Hayes. Mary married second, March 31, 1701, Joseph Selby, and died April 11, 1728.

Robert and Mary (Hayes) Taylor had ten children, all excepting the youngest born in England. Among these was their eldest son Isaac, born in 1666, who married Sarah Brodwell, and they had eight children, the youngest being Josiah who was born June 17, 1708, and married Jane Stewart. They had a son Abraham, born January 21, 1732, who married Rebecca Way.

Abraham and Rebecca Taylor had son Joshua, born July 4, 1771, and married Ann Buffington. They had a son Milton Taylor, who married Sarah Sharp, and they had Almira Lewis Taylor who married John Walter Chandler, the grandparents of Almira Chandler Williams.

GEORGE AND JANE CHANDLER

through their daughter

JANE CHANDLER

SECOND GENERATION

5. JANE CHANDLER, eldest daughter of George and Jane Chandler, was born in England, July 9, 1676, and baptized there. She came to America with her parents in 1687, therefore was a young girl of about eleven years of age when she arrived here. Being the eldest daughter, though young, she no doubt was of great comfort and assistance to her mother in the care of the younger children. She married about 1692, ROBERT JEFFERIS, of Chichester and afterwards of East Bradford, Chester County, the Pioneer Ancestor of this branch of the Jefferis Family.

To this marriage were born twelve children, and through these have descended by succeeding generations a large number of descendants. Her children intermarried with the sons and daughters of other early settlers in Chester County, and in turn her children's children also, so that today there are hundreds of men and women by the name of Jefferis, Cope, Carter, Skeen, Temple, Betterton-Darlington, Williamson, Baldwin, Speakman, Hickman, Townsend, Harper, Hoopes, Bailey, Smedley, Jones, Moore, Powell, Hays, Sharpless and others—all names that have made history in Chester County from its earliest days. They can trace their lines back to Jane Chandler and her husband, Robert Jefferis, and be duly proud to claim these Pioneer Ancestors as theirs. Jane died in 1726 in Chester County.

ROBERT JEFFERIS, the Pioneer of this branch of the family, was born in Wiltshire, England, perhaps as early as 1668, baptized July 9, 1676, in Pewsey Parish. He died April 4, 1739. The date of his arrival in America is given as December 15, 1681, at Upland (or Chester). He appears as a witness at Chester Court in the 7th mo. (September), 1685, and purchased sixty acres of land in Chichester Township in 1691.

In 1701, he bought 180 acres of land in what is now Bradford, Chester County, Pa., and settled there. Later he purchased 256 acres in one tract and 189 acres in another, extending from his first purchase northward to Jefferis Ford on the Brandywine. His name appears on numerous deeds. He owned considerable land and at the time of his death he was considered a man of means, and in his Will signed 4th day of August, 1738, and proved 19th day of April 1739, on file in West Chester (Will Book B, p. 35), he disposes of same. Robert Jefferis served as Constable for Westtown in 1703-4.

SECOND GENERATION

Jane Chandler died in 1726, and about 1728 or 1729, he married Ann (maiden name not known), who survived him. To this marriage there was one child, Richard Jefferis, born in 1730, and married (1) Jane Logan, and (2) Nancy Davis.

The following record of the births of the twelve children of Robert and Jane (Chandler) Jefferis was copied from an old Bible printed in 1712. This old Bible was owned at one time by Robert and Jane Jefferis, and in it were recorded the names of their children and date of their births. In 1896, this old Bible was owned by Mr. William M. Jefferis, of Fayette County, Pa.

4500. PATIENCE JEFFERIS, daughter of Robert and Jane (Chandler) Jefferis, was born 4 mo.-23-1693. She married in 1727, HENRY BETTERTON, who settled in Nantmeal Township, Chester County, Pa. He died in 1727. His will was signed April 9, 1727, and proved May 13, 1727. His children named in his will are as follows:

4512. i. Robert. 4513. ii. Mary. 4514. iii. Martha.

4515. iv. James.

Patience (Jefferis) Betterton married (2) — MACKEY. No further record of her.

4501. CHARITY JEFFERIS, daughter of Robert and Jane (Chandler) Jefferis, was born 4 mo.-11-1695. She married (1) JOHN EVANS, who no doubt died soon after, as we know nothing more of this except the proof of a first marriage found in her marriage certificate. She married (2) 11 mo.-30-1721, JOHN COPE, who was born at Naaman's Creek in 1691; died 3 mo. of 1773, aged eighty-two years. John Cope was the son of Oliver Cope, the Pioneer Ancestor of all the Copes of Chester County, Pa.

OLIVER COPE came to Pennsylvania about the year of 1687 from Abury, a village in Wiltshire, England. He purchased land from William Penn, deed dated 8th day of September, 1681, two hundred and fifty acres, situate, lying and being within the province of Pennsylvania. In this deed, Oliver Cope is referred to as of Awbry, in the County of Wilts, tailor. This deed is on file in Deed Book 3, p. 334, Philadelphia, Pa.

In the month of May, 1682, William Penn sent Thomas Holme, his Surveyor-General, a list of the persons who had purchased land, in order that the same might be surveyed. By this list it appears that Oliver Cope had purchased five hundred acres, which probably included the two hundred and fifty acres mentioned above.

Oliver Cope settled on his land on Naaman's Creek, below the circle line of New Castle County, and died there about the end of May, 1697-98. His will was signed 21st of 3 mo. (May), 1697, by his mark; the reason for his signing so was no doubt due to physical weakness, as he wrote his name to a deed before this.

The death of his wife, Rebecca Cope, occurred in or before May, 1728, as administration on her estate is granted May 16 of that year.

Oliver and Rebecca Cope had children William, Elizabeth, Ruth and JOHN.

JOHN COPE had two hundred acres of land in Bradford in 1712, and he erected a log house thereon. He married, but the name of his first wife or how long she lived we do not know. There were apparently no children born to this union. To this log house he brought Charity Jefferis, his second wife, as his bride and here all their children were born.

This marriage is fully set forth in the following certificate, which shows their manner of proceeding in those times:

CERTIFICATE

"Whereas John Cope, of Bradford, in the County of Chester, and province of Pennsylvania, yeoman, and Charity Evans, daughter of Robert and Jane Jefferis, of the township aforesaid, widow, having, for a considerable time, intended to take each other as husband and wife, and having obtained the consent and allowance of their friends and relatives, having set up a paper at Birmingham Meeting House door, in the eighth month, one thousand seven hundred and twenty-one, to answer the law in that case made and provided. Now, for a full determination of their intention, on the thirtieth day of the ninth month, commonly called November, one thousand seven hundred and twenty one, they, the said John Cope and Charity Evans, appeared in a public assembly, met together for that end and purpose, at the house of Robert Jefferis, situate in Bradford Township. The said John Cope, taking the said Charity Evans by the hand, did declare as followeth:—'Friends, in the presence of God and this assembly, I take this my friend, Charity Evans, to be my wife, promising, through God's assistance to be unto her a faithful and loving husband, until it shall please God, by death, to separate us.' And then in the same assembly, the said Charity Evans did declare in like manner as followeth:—'Friends, in the presence of God and this assembly, I take this my friend, John Cope, to be my husband, promising through God's assistance, to be unto him a loving, obedient and faithful wife, till it shall please God, by death, to separate us'. And the said John Cope and Charity Evans, as a further confirmation thereof, did then and there, to these presents, set their hands, and we whose names are hereunto subscribed being present, among others, as the solemnization of the said marriage and subscription, have unto these presents subscribed our names, the day and year above written. The said Charity assuming the name of her husband, according to the usual custom."

It will be noticed that the name was written Coope, and not with the present spelling. Oliver's name was never spelled in that manner, though his children and descendants continued to write their name thus for nearly a century. Why the original change was made is unknown, though it is said that some of the family went to school under an Irish schoolmaster, who told them the name was not spelled right, and accordingly the alteration was made.

The original of the Marriage Certificate was in the possession of Mr. Alfred Cope, of Philadelphia, who was a great-grandson. He also had in his possession a belt worn by John Cope, from which it appears that his circumference was about thirty-six inches.

The date of Charity's death is not recorded, but must have occurred about 1746 or 1747, as John Cope married (3) on the 12 mo.-23-1748, Elizabeth Fisher, widow of Thomas, of East Caln Township. There were no children born to this union. Elizabeth's death is not known.

John Cope was a member of the Bradford Meeting from the time of its establishment in 1737, until his death. His will was dated 6th day of 7 mo.-1769, and proved 12th day March, 1773, in which he disposed of quite a nice estate for those days, showing him to have been a man of some means.

From the eight children of John and Charity (Jefferis) Cope have descended by succeeding generations thousands of descendants. We will not attempt to carry down all these lines in full, as it would duplicate the work of the late Gilbert Cope, who has compiled a Genealogy of the Cope Family and gathered much data on this line. The family is herein carried down for five or six generations only. For further reference, consult the works of Gilbert Cope.

Children of John and Charity (Jefferis) Cope:

4516. i. Hannah, b. 4-25-1724; d. 10-10-1817; m. 2-10-1746, John Carter.

4502. WILLIAM JEFFERIS, son of Robert and Jane (Chandler) Jefferis, was born 9 mo.-17-1697; died in 1777. He married in 1724, ELIZABETH (Ring) NEILD, the widow of John Neild and daughter of Nathaniel and Elizabeth Ring. He appears to have resided in Chester Township for several years, but after the death of his father, he purchased the homestead where he resided the latter part of his life. He was a man.of means and owned considerable real estate, as we find a number of deeds in his name. His will was signed 9 mo.-1-1777, and a Codicil added 11 mo.-22-1777, and proved 10 mo.-2-1778. It is on record in Chester County, Pa.

- 4530. vii. Nathan, b. 7-6-1741; d. 1778; m. Peninah (Strode?).

4503. JAMES JEFFERIS, son of Robert and Jane (Chandler) Jefferis, was born 1 mo. (March) 16, 1699; died in 1745. His father conveyed to him 100 acres of land at Jefferis's Ford and on the east side of the stream, in 1721, but he probably did not begin housekeeping thereon. On the west side of the creek, *George Carter had settled in 1714, on 102 acres of land, and died about the close of 1726. George Carter came from Buckleberry, Berkshire, England. It is said that James Jefferis took the management of the farm for the widow, ELIZABETH (Till) CARTER, to whom he was married at Christ Church, Philadelphia, Pa., March 3, 1728, and they settled at the Carter home.

In the absence of definite information, it may be safe to presume that at the time of their marriage, James Jefferis went to reside with his wife at her home, and continued to live there until the time of his death in 1745. It appears from his will that he lived on the west side of the Brandywine and the situation of the house was probably near Jefferis bridge.

Elizabeth (Carter) Jefferis survived her husband many years and tradition says was known in the neighbourhood as "Granny Jefferis." In 1765, she conveyed to her son Emmor her interest in the tract of 102 acres which had belonged to her first husband.

James Jefferis subsequently bought land on both sides of the creek, and at the time of his death he owned about 500 acres. In 1738, he was admitted into membership at Birmingham Meeting, and in 1743 he was appointed an overseer.

4533. iii. Emmor, b. about 1732; d. 10-9-1802; m. Elizabeth Taylor in 1757.

4504. ROBERT JEFFERIS, son of Robert and Jane (Chandler) Jefferis, was born 3 mo.-20-1702. He apparently left Chester County, and as one writer says, "made a long jump," and very little is found of him. He was married four times. He first settled in East Bradford and we find a deed dated January 14, 1745, signed by him and wife ELINOR. In 1757 and 1762, we find Robert and wife ELIZABETH signing deeds. Elizabeth, his second wife, was ELIZABETH HARPER, daughter of Moses and Elizabeth Harper. The names of the others are not known. At present writing we find only three children. Jane was born to Elinor, but to which marriage the others were born we do not know. There were no doubt other children.

CHILDREN:

4534. i. Jane, m. 2 mo.-13-1749, John Clayton.

Nathan Cope married (2) 1 mo.-10-1760, MARY DICKINSON.

4521. CALEB COPE, son of John and Charity (Jefferis) *Cope, was born 11 mo.-4-1736; died 5-30-1824. He married 10 mo.-17-1760, MARY MENDENHALL, daughter of George and Sarah Mendenhall, of East Caln Township; Mary died 6 mo.-1-1809.

Caleb Cope removed to the town of Lancaster, Pa., in 1761, where he continued to reside for many years, but finally ended his days in Philadelphia, where three of his sons were settled.

"Major Andre was captured at St. Johns, Upper Canada, by General Montgomery, on the 3d of November, 1775, and with other British officers sent to Lancaster, Pennsylvania, as a prisoner of war."

Caleb was then residing in that place and filling the office of a burgess. He was a member of the Society of Friends, a non-combatant, of course, and more disposed to yield to the pretensions of the British Government than to engage in a bloody war, believing that there would still be remaining blessings enough to be thankful for.

It was under these circumstances that he offered the prisoners a shelter under his roof, when it seemed impossible for them to obtain accommodations elsewhere. This act required the exercise of no little moral courage, as the populace were greatly excited against the prisoners, and soon gave evidence of their hostility by destroying every window in the house of their generous benefactor, an act of violence, however, which was fully redeemed in after years when the people of Lancaster liberally assisted the unfortunate owner in the reconstruction of his dwelling which had been accidentally destroyed by fire.

It is said Andre, while there, became very much interested in Caleb's young son John, then a boy of about thirteen years, who had displayed a remarkable talent for drawing, and Andre proposed to the father of his "young disciple," as he called the boy artist, that he be allowed to take him back with him to England and educate him at his own expense for the profession of a painter. There are four letters in the possession of the descendants of Caleb that were written to Caleb Cope by John Andre in the year 1776. Three of them were dated at Carlisle, and the fourth at Reading, Pa.

4626. iii. Elizabeth, b. Mar. 20, 1774; m. Joshua Woodward.

4627. iv. Emmor, b. May 29, 1776.

Peninah (———) Jefferis married (2) THOMAS BAY-LIFFE, by whom she had two children, Mary and Joseph.

4531. JAMES JEFFERIS, son of James and Elizabeth (Tull) Jefferis, was born 11 mo.-20-1728; died 11 mo.-28-1807. He received from his father all his land on the east side of the Brandywine Creek, being about 220 acres, and he probably settled thereon at the time of his marriage.

James Jefferis married on December 23, 1749, ANN CHEYNEY, daughter of Thomas Cheyney, the Pioneer Ancestor of this branch of the family of Cheyney, and his wife, Elizabeth Hickman. James and Ann (Cheyney) Jefferis had eight children, from whom have descended by succeeding generations a large number of descendants.

THOMAS CHEYNEY came to Pennsylvania with his brother John Cheyney. They had purchased 1,500 acres of land in the neighborhood of what is today Cheyney Station, in Thornbury Township. Early in 1726, Thomas Cheyney married ELIZABETH (HICKMAN), daughter of Benjamin Hickman and Ann (Buffington), and granddaughter of Francis Hickman, the Pioneer Ancestor of this family, and the granddaughter of Richard Buffington who came to Pennsylvania and settled in Chester County.

RICHARD BUFFINGTON, the Pioneer Ancestor of the family, settled here before the name of Pennsylvania was given to the Province. The records of the Court at Upland, now Chester County, show that Richard Buffington was a taxable in 1676, or one hundred years before the Declaration of Independence. It is claimed that Richard Buffington, his son, was the "first-born Englishman in Pennsylvania."

Richard Buffington was married three times and had thirteen children. He died in 1747-8 when he was in his 94th year. In his will he names his daughter Ann Hickman.

Thus we find the marriage of James Jefferis and Ann Cheyney brings into the Chandler-Jefferis Family four other prominent and early settlers of Chester County, Francis Hickman, Richard Buffington, Thomas Cheyney and Thomas Marshall. And from this marriage there have descended a great number of descendants, among whom we find men and women who have filled many prominent positions in our country in the past, as well as present. Among these we can name Congressman John Hickman, one-time candidate for nomination for Vice-President of the United States; Dr. Joseph Hickman, former member of the State Legislature and his two sons, Samuel G. and Nathaniel S., bankers of West Chester, who upon their decease left over one million dollars to Friends' charities; Mrs. Charles B. Berwin, wife of a noted coal operator; Mrs. Thomas B. Neely, wife of Bishop Neely of the Methodist Episcopal Church; Mrs. Robert E. Strawbridge; Baroness Von Kleist and Baroness Von Bockling, both of Germany; Mrs. Herman Harjes, wife of a noted Paris banker; Marshall B. Hickman, prominent in Chester County affairs; Mrs. Francis Edwin Arnold, wife of an Episcopal clergyman; Mrs. Granville B. Haines, wife of a prominent merchant and president of a Philadelphia Department Store; Mrs. A. Atwater Kent, wife of a prominent manufacturer; Wellington Hickman; Col. Baynton J. Hickman, U. S. Army; Admiral Edward H. Gheen, U. S. Navy; the late Willard Speakman and Dr. William Speakman, both prominent in Wilmington, Del.; Dr. Lawrence M. Hickman of Philadelphia; Mrs. Joseph T. Hunt, wife of Dr. Hunt; Joseph B. Townsend, LL.D.; Joseph Barton Townsend, Joseph T. Murlagh, William T. Elliott, prominent attorneys of Philadelphia; Rev. Robert Hayburn Gamble, Episcopal clergyman, and many others too numer; ous to mention.

A complete record of the descent of Francis Hickman, which includes all the descendants of Thomas Cheyney and many of the Ways and Buffingtons, has been prepared by Lawrence C. Hickman, Esq., member of the Philadelphia Bar, and is ready for publication. Therefore, to avoid duplication, we carry the descent of James Jefferis only to the fifth generation, which is that of their children, as follows:

- 4628. i. Mary, b. 9-9-1750; d. 9-11-1812; m. Thomas Hickman.
- 4629. ii. Emmor, b. 1-18-1752; m. Rachel Grubb.

He married in 1757, ELIZABETH TAYLOR, daughter of Benjamin and Sarah Taylor, of Kennett (now Pocopson) Township. She was previously engaged to marry William Webb, Jr., and they had gone so far as to declare their intentions of marriage before the monthly meeting to which she belonged (Concord), held 5 mo.-2-1757. Owing to some disagreement between them, the engagement was broken, and she married his rival Emmor Jefferis before the next Monthly Meeting.

His father willed to him 260 acres of good land on the west side of the eastern branch of the Brandywine, on which he settled.

- 4623. JOHN JEFFERIS, son of Samuel and Margaret (Townsend) Jefferis, was born 1 mo.-28-1763; died 7 mo.-22-1825. He married 3 mo.-29-1787, in Bradford Friends Meeting, HANNAH CARPENTER, born 1 mo.-4-1768; died 7 mo.-30-1799. She was the daughter of John and Hannah (Walters) Carpenter, of West Bradford, Chester County, Pa., and grand-daughter of William Carpenter, the Pioneer Ancestor of this branch of the family.

WILLIAM CARPENTER, the Pioneer Ancestor of this family, came to Pennsylvania from England. He married Margaret, widow of Nathaniel Richards, of New Garden, Chester County, Pa., and daughter of Allen Wyley. In 1746, William Carpenter purchased 174 acres of land in New Garden Township, which he devised to his son John Carpenter. William died in 1748, leaving three children: John, the father of Hannah Carpenter Jefferis; Sarah, who married 12 mo.-11-1755, Michael Gregg; and Ann Albina Carpenter.

Children of John and Hannah (Carpenter) Jefferis:

4628. MARY JEFFERIS, daughter of James and Ann (Cheyney) Jefferis, was born 9 mo.-9-1750; died 9 mo.-11-1812. She married THOMAS HICKMAN, born in 1743; died 12 mo.-17-1825. They resided in Thornbury Township, now Delaware County. He served in the Thornbury Co. of the Militia during the Revolutionary War.

He was the son of Francis Hickman and Ann Marshall, who were married in Philadelphia, 1745. Francis Hickman was the son of Benjamin Hickman, the fifth and last child of Francis and Elizabeth Hickman, and the grandson of Francis Hickman, the Pioneer Ancestor of the American family.

FRANCIS HICKMAN, the Pioneer Ancestor of this branch of the Hickman Family, was born in England, date unknown, and died in 1685 or 1686, in Pennsylvania. He married in England, Elizabeth Chamberlin, a widow, who was the mother of all his children, all born in England. Just when he arrived in America has never been accurately determined. He and his family were living in Lambourn Woodlands, Berkshire, England, between the years 1668 and 1679. He and his family (except his daughter Mary, who had come over earlier) arrived in Pennsylvania between June 2, 1684 and November 27, 1685. He was not the first of the name Hickman to arrive in America. Some families by that name came over with the early settlers of Virginia and Maryland. There was also a John Hickman in Pennsylvania as early as 1682.

Thomas and Mary (Jefferis) Hickman had children:

4979. i. John, b. 3-20-1769; d. 7-2-1846; m. Sarah Jefferis.

5300. ANN CHANDLER, daughter of George and Jane Chandler, was born in England about 1683, but no baptismal record of her is found there, although all the rest of the children were baptized and so recorded. This may be due to the fact that about this time George and Jane became interested in the Quaker religion, or that they left the parish before her birth. She died 8 mo.-10-1758. She married (1) SAMUEL ROBINS, of Philadelphia, Pa.

5310. vi. Hannah; died unmarried. (And six others who died young.)

Family tradition claims they had a daughter who married an Englishman. She died, leaving a young son, and the father died soon after the mother. The child was brought up by her sister Deborah, who raised him until he was twelve years old, when his father's family in England sent for him to go to England. They wished to bring him up in the English Navy. It is said at the time of the War of the Revolution, when General Howe took possession of Philadelphia, that this boy, having grown up, came to this country in one of the ships as an officer, and he made his way at once to his aunt's home on Second Street above Market, and was rejoiced to see his aunt, and when the fleet left here, he gave her two naval tumblers, highly carved with ships. One held a half gallon, and when Abraham Garrigues married Esther Marshall, his Aunt Deborah gave him this one. This was kept in his house until the death of his eldest child, Sarah Marshall Garrigues, who died in her 90th year (1885). She left it to her nephew Charles H. Garrigues, of Francesville, Indiana.

SAMUEL CHANDLER of New York and Pennsylvania

5493. SAMUEL CHANDLER was born in Orange County, New York, September 26, 1782, and died in Bradford County, Pa., April 23, 1850. He married MARGARET CAVENAUGH, who was born at Newfield, New York, April 2, 1782, and died October 12, 1851. Her parents came from Ireland.

Nothing is known of his parents, but it is claimed that they came from England to Orange County, New York, where his son Samuel was born. If this is proved, it would then, of course, eliminate the family from the George and Jane Chandler Family of Pennsylvania.

Samuel Chandler moved to Orange Hill, Athens Township, Bradford County, Pa., in 1853.

JOHN CHANDLER of North Carolina

5525. JOHN (WESLEY) CHANDLER we find in North Carolina in 1800, when his son James was born. He is said to have had seven brothers whose names were Daniel, James, Jeremiah, Samuel, Shadrack, Meshak and Abednigo, and it is further claimed they all served in the War of the Revolution. Taking the lists of North and South Carolina Revolutionary Soldiers, this undoubtedly is true, for there were many of the name of Chandler who were in the service; we find fifteen of the name in one Company.

This group of men, John Chandler and his brothers, are descendants, we believe, of George and Jane Chandler through one of those who early went south, for a number of the Chandlers of the younger generation went south and west.

Some of Shadrack's descendants lived in Idaho and in Alabama, and all of these men had large families, so there are many descendants of this line. Samuel Chandler is said to have had twenty children. By further work on this family, we hope to make the connection clear.

John Chandler married CHRISTINA McKENZIE, born in North Carolina, the daughter of Mordecai and (Mathews) McKenzie. They seem to have lived in the vicinity of Fayetteville, North Carolina.

CHILDREN:

5526. i. James, b. 2-22-1800; d. 2-9-1880; m. Henrietta Kenedy.

5527. ii. Asa; went to Illinois.

5528. iii. Macy.

5526. JAMES CHANDLER, son of John and Christina (McKenzie) Chandler, was born 2-22-1800, in North Carolina; died 2-9-1880, at Cove, Union County, Oregon. He married HENRIETTA KENEDY, born in North Carolina, daughter of Daniel and Christina (McKenzie) Kenedy. (This line used one "n" only in writing the name.) James went to Kentucky from North Carolina and from there to Illinois, and later to Oregon.

CHILDREN:

5530. JOHN CHANDLER, son of James and Henrietta (Kenedy) Chandler, was born in Sangamon County, Ill., 4 mo-1-1831; died at Orofino, Idaho, 9 mo.-7-1914. He married 12 mo.-24-1857, in Polk County, Oregon, ELIZABETH BUFF, born 9 mo.-26-1846, in Platte County, Missouri; died at Deer Park, Idaho, daughter of Martin and Phareba (or Freeba) Simpson Buff, of Orofino, Idaho. They settled in Polk County, Oregon until 1878, thence to Washington territory, thence to Idaho in 1897.

CHILDREN:

- 5538. i. William Martin, b. 9-23-1858, in Polk Co., Oregon; m. 10-16-1883, Louisa Dane.

- 5546. ix. Clarence D., b. 10-23-1877, in Walla Walla Co., Wash. All children except the youngest were born in Polk Co., Oregon.

5538. WILLIAM MARTIN CHANDLER, son of John and Elizabeth (Buff) Chandler, was born in Bethel, Polk County, Oregon. His education was received in the public schools. He has been Probate Judge, and served in all minor offices; two terms as State Representative in Idaho; one year Deputy County Treasurer in Thurston County, Wash., and five years in Clearwater County, Idaho. Has published five different county newspapers and was in the news office of the Lewiston Morning Tribune two and a half years. He has been interested in real estate and insurance work; is an admitted practitioner in the Department of Interior, but not now active. For over fifty years, he was an active member of the I. O. O. F.

Mr. Chandler is much interested in his family connections; on his maternal side he is a descendant of Martin Buff who was a direct descendant of one of the women who came from Holland to become the wives of the old pioneers of Pennsylvania and Virginia. His grandmother Simpson was of the old Simpson family, from which General Grant descended. His grandmother Henrietta Kenedy was from the North Carolina family that came from Ireland or Scotland to the colonies long before the revolution.

William Martin Chandler was born in Oregon and lived there nineteen years. He moved to Washington Territory and lived there nineteen years. Went to Idaho in 1897 and has lived there since. He married (1) in Polk County, Oregon, 10 mo.-16-1893, LOUISA DANE, born 9 mo.-3-1866, in Douglas County, Oregon, died at Medical Lake, Wash., in May, 1908, daughter of Edwin and Sarah (Phillips) Dane.

5548. ii. Charles Edwin, b. 11-3-1888, in Sprague, Wash.; m. Minnie Ganz.

5549. iii. Arthur Dane, b. 12-22-1891; d. 9-17-1892, at Olympia, Wash.

5550. iv. Eugene Simpson, b. 1-7-1894, in Pierce Co., Wash.; m. 12-14-1930, Mae Rachel (Wright) Morrow.

JAMES CHANDLER of South Carolina

5551. JAMES CHANDLER was in the Pendleton District, South Carolina, quite early, but very little is known of him, and nothing of his parentage, but it is believed that he belongs to the same family, and probably is a brother of John Chandler, of North Carolina, as before mentioned.

He left Pendleton District (now Laurens County) and went to Troup County, Georgia, and from there he went to Alabama.

James Chandler married, but the name of his wife is unknown. They had the following children and probably others:

CHILDREN:

5552. i. James, b. 1801.

5553. ii. Mordecai, b. 1804; m. Elizabeth Banks.

Children:

1. Dr. Edward Pendleton (named for the District in which he was born), b. 1844; d. 1914, aged 70 years; m. ———.

Children: John, Mary Alabama, Neal Wallace, James Robert and Ellie Mae.

- 2. Thomas.
- 3. Elizabeth.
- 4. Samuel.

5554. iii. Lottie.

5555. iv. Rebecca.

5556. v. Marie.

THE following poem was written by Isabell G. Shortlidge, and dedicated to George and Jane Chandler and their descendants and read by her at the 200th Anniversary Reunion and by special request is herein printed.

POEM

Long years ago the thrilling sound, On England's haughty shore, Of Norman William's bugle blast Proclaimed the woes of war.

Bitter and brief the struggle came,
While England's realm and dower,
With bleeding, prostrate, dying King,
Were grasped by Norman power.

And as the evening shadows veiled
That blood-red field of fame,
Among the first on honor's roll
The name of Chandler came.

Those conquering hosts by William led, Eager for spoils perchance, Forgot the scenes by youth endeared, The sunny land of France.

And when the clarion's brazen throat
Was heard in the land no more
To call again their scattered bands
Into the ranks of war.

On Albion's soil new homes they made, Weary of war's alarms, And Briton's archives hold even yet The Chandler "Coat of Arms."

Within those homes by conquest made, With purpose true and grand, They taught their sons to ever revere Their English fatherland.

And as the generations came,
From grandsire down to son
Was heard the mandate stern and strong,
"Protect the land we've won."

Long lived they thus in sweet content, By peace and plenty blest, While every twilight brought the call To curfew's welcome rest.

And would that here the scene might close,
That never church and state
Had raised the conflict long and deep,
Supplanting love by hate.

But when the golden Sabbath sun Rose o'er those hills so fair, And England's bells with measured chime Bade all to join her prayer. Then great men whose hearts were fill'd With holy love divine Disclaimed the right of king and code To fix for them a shrine.

But begged the boon they long had craved, Exempt from creed and rite, To worship God as seemed to them Most pleasing in His sight.

But England, bold in conscious power,
These suppliants laughed to scorn,
While still the chimes of fettered faith
On Sabbath winds were borne.

When wafted on the swelling breeze
From far New England's shore
They caught the tidings, dear to them,
"Freedom for evermore."

Then turned they from the land they loved, Their once fond hope and pride, While dropped in silence on that deck The tear they fein would hide.

Weary and long and fraught with grief
That voyage o'er the main,
But the angel voice of white-winged Hope
Brought solace even in pain.

And when, at last, the ship's broad keel
Touched fair Columbia's strand,
On bended knee, they humbly asked
A blessing on the land.

Thus to wild uncultured coast,
'Mid trials they could not know,
Undaunted came our Chandler sires,
Two hundred years ago.

And we who've gathered here today
'Neath Heaven's arch of blue,
Come not to turn the saddened page,
Nor con their griefs anew.

But with full hearts of hopeful cheer To that eventful day, Spanned by the line of centuries two, Our tribute would we pay.

On thy green banks, O Brandywine!
The forests shook and swayed
With Indian whoop of savage war,
Where their first homes were made.

But that deep thirst for fell revenge, Which the red man's hate inspires, Which laughs even at its victim's pain, Endangered not our sires. For they with justice for their guide, And peace their watch-word, dear, Taught savage chiefs of savage tribes Their treaties to revere.

So to the rhythm of the axe,
As tall oaks reeled and fell,
Their happy songs of love and praise
Echoed o'er hill and dell.

Many the summer suns rolled round,
Followed by Winter's blast,
But health and comfort—happy twain!—
Blest those rude homes at last.

And as the sturdy parent oak—
The forest's joy and pride—
Spreads its broad arms replete with strength
To branches far and wide.

So grew around those pristine scenes
Brave sons and daughters fair,
Who, one by one, youth's threshold crossed,
Followed by love and prayer.

Some sought the calm of rural life, Some trod the halls of State, But all the Christ-like lesson learned To watch, and pray, and wait.

And ev'n as in the days of old,
With steadfast faith and bright,
They left the impress of their trust
That "might must yield to right."

O honored sires of bygone days!
In reverence do we bow,
And ask your faith undimmed may join
The far off "then" and "now."

While we your children's children come From homes remote and near To kindly grasp each kinsman's hand, Exchanging words of cheer.

Have we, amid the cares of life,
Where truth with error strives,
Such valor shown in freedom's cause
As marked your noble lives?

Up from the sunny vales and slopes
Of chastened Southern soil
Our answer comes—in fetters torn—
From dusky sons of toil.

For when the cannon's iron mouth
Thundered on Sumter's wall
Our grand old eagle felt the shock
And tottered to its fall.

Brave fathers kissed their sleeping babes
While hot tears bathed their cheek,
And mothers hid from darling sons
The grief they dared not speak.

And under southern mounds today
By broad Potomac's shore
Some sleep from sleep from which the drum
Will rouse them nevermore.

But years of gentle peace have closed Those scenes with discord rife, While brothers, in the grey and blue, Forget fraternal strife.

And now we ask—is't not enough?

Even more than wealth or fame,
That down the line unstained may pass
Our cherished family name.

May you whose locks the frosts of time Have touched with silver grey, Who hold important posts of trust In life's broad field today—

Inspire in younger hearts that zeal Your lives have ever shown; To onward press where duty calls, Better and stronger grown.

And in this wide untrammel'd land
Nor creed nor caste may span,
More precious far than "Coat of Arms"
Is love to God and man.

THE CHANDLER PAGEANT

One of the main features of the 250th Anniversary Reunion of the Chandlers will be the production of the Chandler Pageant, "The Light Bearers," in the beautiful open-air theatre at "Longwood," the estate of Pierre S. duPont, Kennett Square, Pennsylvania, September 4 and 6, 1937, at 8:30 P. M.

The pageant is historical in nature and follows closely the outstanding events in the lives of those colorful pioneers, John, George, and Jane Chandler, the original settlers, who came from England to the Province of Pennsylvania in the year 1687.

Based on a poem written in 1887 by a Chandler descendant, the late Isabel G. Shortlidge, of Concordville, Pennsylvania, for the 200th anniversary of the family's advent in America, the script of the spectacle is the work of Albert George Weidensaul, a member of the English Department of the Upper Darby Junior High School, and pageant director for the Upper Darby School District.

Herschel E. Shortlidge, Sr., first vice-president of the reunion, conceived the idea of the pageant, and was made pageant chairman at the last Chandler Reunion held in 1935. Too much praise cannot be given Mr. Shortlidge for his splendid work and co-operation in this very worth-while project.

Over 100 descendants of the Chandler family will enact the parts of their sires in this work, which has been called "The Light Bearers," because the name "Chandler" is a contraction of the original French family name "le Chaundeler," which means "bearer of light."

Percy M. Chandler, past president of the reunion, has sent a photographer abroad especially to make moving pictures of the regions from which the Chandlers came. These pictures will be shown in connection with the pageant as an opening feature.

Mrs. Helen Chandler Way deserves special mention for her splendid, painstaking, conscientious and very arduous task as Secretary-Treasurer of the Reunion.
